

VIRGINIA ANN BROWN
Engaged To Jerry Lowe

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brown of Bellingham, Wash., recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Ann to Jerry D. Lowe, son of Nyssan Foy Lowe. The bride-elect is a graduate of Western Washington State college and is a member of the Olympic junior high school faculty. The future bridegroom attended Central Washington State college and is a retail salesman for Van's Furniture company in Auburn, Wash. An August 12 wedding ceremony is being planned by the betrothed couple.

Miss Jane Timmerman, honored queen of Bethel 33, was selected as grand Bethel senior princess during the 43rd annual session of Job's Daughter held last week in Salem. She was installed during June 16 evening ceremonies and will serve in this capacity for one year. Miss Timmerman displays a plaque presented to Bethel 33 for the most girl miles accumulated in traveling to the Oregon capital city. The plaque will remain in the possession of local Jobies until next June when grand session will be held in Pendleton. In addition to the honored queen, those making the trip by chartered bus were Christy Nelson, Joann Timmerman, Kathy Nelson, Joyce Jennings, Jill Franklin, Pam McPartland, Linda Root, Susan Kouns, Alicia Huffman, G. G. Holly, Karen Main, Marilee Wilson, Sheila Huffman, Jackie Franklin, Linda McPartland, Cille and Cindy Tracy. Mrs. Marybelle Kowolowski of Madras and Mac Owens of Portland were installed as grand guardian and associate grand guardian for the ensuing year. Among those receiving appointments by the new grand guardian is Mrs. G. E. (Pauline) Mackey who has been named to the traveling gavel committee for District 1 which includes eastern Oregon. Mrs. Mackey is a past guardian of Bethel 33 and has been very active in all phases of the organization.
