

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL F. GRIBBIN

First Christian church in Ontario was scene of a 3 o'clock ceremony June 17, 1967, when wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Mary Kay English and Michael Frank Gribbin.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce English of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gribbin of Weiser, Idaho.

Before an altar graced with basket arrangements of white gladiolus, mintgreenblossoms, candelabras decorated with white glads, the double ring rites were performed by the Rev. Joe Wagon of the Weiser Christian church, in the presence of 150 guests.

Soloist was Mrs. Robert Husted, accompanied by Gertrude Neeley of Weiser.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, and was attired in French chenille lace gown, with short chapel train, wide satin band on hemline, satin bows at bodice, ballarine-length veil of silk illusion held in place by a fan shaped silk organza seed pearl and bearels crystals.

The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Attending as maid of honor was Elizabeth Cole, with Sherry Myers and Joan Hewett as bridesmaids. They wore identical mint green satin dresses. They carried cascading white glads; and wore mint green short tulle veils.

Flower girl was Karla Zalman wearing an identical ensemble of other lady attendants.

David Wisemor served as best man, while ushers were Lynn Stone and James Bell. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. English wore a three piece bone colored knit suit. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a gold linen ensemble, and each wore a green cattilya orchid corsage.

Those assisting in the serving at the reception were Mrs. Delwyn Zollman, cousin of the bridegroom, Mrs. Robert Husted, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Norman Williams, sister of the bridegroom and ladies of the church.

Among out of area guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Husted and family of Anchorage, Alaska, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Rhoades, Orrell Gribbin all of Oakland, Calif., Mrs. Clayton Marse of Astoria, Ore., Miss Gay Heegler of Sierra Madre, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Delwyn Zollman and family of Joseph, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams and family of Boise.

The new Mrs. Gribbin was a 1964 graduate of Nyssa high school, Kinnman Business school and Treasure Valley Community college in Ontario. The bridegroom was a 1963 graduate of Weiser high school, attended University of Idaho and TVCC. He is employed for the summer in the forest service.

For the wedding trip to Walla Walla Lake, Ore., the new bride was attired in a summer cotton suit.

They plan to live in Pullman, Wash., where he will attend Washington State university.
