Olsens Tour Mexico

Dr. and Mrs. John Olsen and Jack returned July 4 from a five-week trip to Mexico.

The Olsens left June 1 and drove through Nozales and followed the west coast. They stopped four days in Mazatlan, went on to Guadalajara and spent four days there and toured the sights in that area.

The Nyssa family drove to Mexico City where they stayed for five days. They toured the city, saw the pyramids and visited glass, leather and gold factories. The Nyssans went to a bullfight, saw the Folklorio Ballet at the palace of fine arts and toured the palace of Maximilian and Carlotta.

The Olsens continued their trip and traveled north to the central high plateaus of Mexico. At some points they were at 11,000 feet elevations. They also stopped at Juarez, Mexico.

Touring the states the Olsens viewed the Carlsbad Caverns and White Sands National monument in New Mexico. In Nevada they saw Lehman's Cave, Bryce Canyon in Utah, and toured Scotty's castle in Death Valley, Calif.

Mrs. Olsen reported that they enjoyed wonderful temperatures on their trip. The only time they needed a fan was the drive between Hermosillo and Mazatlan. The hottest weather they encountered was when they returned to Nyssa.

The Nyssa family went to Portland to bring Trudy home. She had been staying with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Flaschner.

SA Gerald M. Long Linda R. Morrison Surprises Parents Earns PLU Honors

Seaman Apprentice Gerald Long surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Long, by flying in to visit them over the weekend.

Long recently completed nine weeks of electronics training in San Diego, and is now stationed on Treasure Island near Sacramento. While on the island, he will spend four months attending radar school.

Miss Linda R. Morrison was named to Pacific Lutheran university's dean's list for outstanding academic achievement during the 1967 spring semester, according to a PLU news release.

The honor student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Morrison Jr. of Nyssa, will be a junior this fall at the university in Tacoma, Washington.

Students on the dean's list achieved better than a 3.3 grade point average during the second semester of the school year.

Many a man who prides himself on being level-headed doesn't know how low level is.
