

Pendleton Edges Out Vandal All-Stars 3-2

The Ontario Vandal All-Star squad met their second defeat last Wednesday night in the final contest of the District 3 Babe Ruth Tournament held in Baker.

Ontario ended up playing a double-header Wednesday night as the Vandals, the Pendleton Americans, and the Pendleton Nationals were tied for first with each having one loss.

The Vandals shut-out the Pendleton American team 4 to 0 as Dick Galloway went all the way for the win. The win over the Americans put Ontario in the final game with the Pendleton Nationals.

Pendleton squeezed past Ontario in the second game of the double header as they took an early first inning lead of two runs.

GOLF Activities

Guest day for the Ontario Women's Golf association got off to a flying start July 18, with a coffee hour from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m., with Claire Farber and Georgia Yturri serving as hostesses.

After nine holes of golf the women had punch before lunch was served at the club house.

Patsy Stevens and Lou Echanis were the tournament committee for the day. Awards were made by Maxie Sugai, president of the Ontario Women's Golf association. Guests were placed by the "Calloway System" and winners were Louise Jorgenson, Lorraine Laakey and Jeanette Larsen.

Connie Jones won low gross with a 44, and Claudine Garrison low net with a 37 1/2. Bogey went to Connie Jones, Arline Richards and Claudine Garrison.

Door prize winners were Margaret Nysing, Harriet Flanagan, Evelyn Newman, Connie Jones, Lorraine Lackey, Sina Conner and Marilyn Poole.

Prizes for the day were donated by the Vogue dress shop, Eastside Floral, Ontario Pharmacy and Keith Stanwood, pro.

Defense Head Has Poor Record On Predictions

Since the spring of 1962, Defense Secretary McNamara has made nine trips to Vietnam. Here is what he said about the outlook during or following each of those trips:

April-May, 1962: "There is no plan for introducing combat forces in South Vietnam."

He added that he was "tremendously encouraged" by progress in the war, and saw no reason for a major increase in military aid to the South Vietnamese.

September-October, 1963: Said the White House in a statement following a trip to Vietnam by McNamara and General Maxwell Taylor, then Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff: "Secretary McNamara and General Taylor reported their judgment that the major part of the U.S. military task can be completed by the end of 1965, although there may be a continuing requirement for a limited number of . . . training personnel."

Ontario rolled up one run in the fifth and sixth innings to tie the score.

In the bottom of the sixth frame the Pendleton Nationals collected their third run on an Ontario error. Ontario could not come up with a run in the top of the seventh which gave the Nationals a tournament win by a 3-2 score. -Ontario Argus Observer.

Visits Garrisons

Mrs. Ray Garrison of Lima, Peru was a recent visitor in the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Garrison. She was enroute home after visiting her mother at Milton-Freewater. Her husband is a brother of Mrs. Olsen and Dale Garrison.

December, 1963: McNamara said he was "optimistic as to the progress that can be made in the coming year."

May, 1964: McNamara said "excellent progress" had been made toward defeating the Viet Cong.

After reporting to the President, he said it might be necessary to send "certain additional U. S. personnel" to Vietnam, but only to expand the training of South Vietnamese forces.

July, 1965: "The over-all situation continues to be serious," the Secretary reported. "As a matter of fact, in many aspects there has been deterioration since I was here (in Vietnam) last, 15 months ago. But the picture is not all black by any means. The Vietnamese people continue to be willing to fight . . . and die in their own defense."

November, 1965: "We have stopped losing the war."

October, 1966: "I see no reason to expect any significant increase in the level or tempo of operations in South Vietnam, nor do I see any reason to believe that deployments of U. S. forces to that country will change significantly in the future."

U. S. forces in Vietnam at that time: 331,000. Now: 466,000.

July, 1967: In Vietnam on his ninth trip, the Secretary was quoted by the British news agency Reuters as saying more progress had been made in the war in the last nine months than in the previous six years. — U. S. News and World Report, Inc.

BRIDES — YOU'LL UNDOUBTEDLY RECEIVE some electrical appliances as wedding gifts. Don't let the instruction book get lost in the wrappings and ribbons.

Reading it through doesn't always give you the working knowledge you need. It's after you've used the appliance that you begin to wonder about all its uses. The book will help you get the most from it.

When equipment needs servicing, the instruction book can give many clues to problems. Rereading it may prove that you've been mis-using the equipment -- which caused the problem in the first place.

In case the instructions aren't included with your gift, ask for them from a dealer who handles the product, or write to the manufacturer.
