

Miss Kay Travis became the bride of Jim Neely during an 8 o'clock evening ceremony on July 8, 1967 in the Ontario Assembly of God church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John Travis of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tyner of Nyssa.

The double ring rites were performed by the Rev. Elwood Irby in the presence of 75 guests. Soloist was Mrs. Elwood Irby, accompanied by Mrs. Carl Foster.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a stree-length dress of white lace over satin on an empire style bodice. She also wore a shoulder-length veil. The new bride carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby breath. Attending as maid of honor was Dolores MacPherson, attired in a blue taffeta dress under chiffon. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Bob Proctor served as best man, while ushers were Jerry McCain of Nyssa and Richard Kobs of Boston, Mass.

The bride's mother wore an off white knit suit, while the bridegroom's mother wore a light blue brocade ensemble. Both wore a pink rosebud corsage.

A three-tier cake accented with blue roses and topped with white doves graced the refreshment table.

Mrs. Allen Benoit, sister of the bridegroom assisted with the serving of the cake, while Miss Beverly Travis, sister of the bride served punch.

Attending the gift table were Miss Patty Neely and Mrs. Rene Soliz, sisters of the bridegroom and Miss Linda Crocker, a cousin. Dianne Husfloen was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Ontario high school, and is now employed in Ontario.

The bridegroom is a 1966 graduate of Nyssa high school and is employed in Ontario.

The newlyweds went to Boise for their wedding trip, and now reside at 292 NE 1st Street in Ontario.

Out-of-state guests were Mrs. Linnie Kobs and Richard Kobs, uncle and grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. F. William Droz, aunt of the bridegroom, Barbara, Billy and Sandy Droz and Miss Linda Crocker, cousins of the bridegroom, all are from Boston, Mass.

Senior Citizens

Schedule Picnic

Members of the Senior Citizens group met Friday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Long.

Plans were made for the members to attend the pioneer picnic, Friday, August 25, at Vale.
