

MR. AND MRS. RONALD LEE HOPKINS

Mary Ellen Jones became the bride of Ronald Lee Hopkins on August 13, 1967, at Sterry Memorial Presbyterian church in Roswell. The nine o'clock evening candlelight rite was performed by the Revs. Stanley Banks and Wayne Douglas. Two hundred guests witnessed the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mrs. Gerty Jones of Adrian, and the late Thomas L. Jones III, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hopkins of Ontario.

The church was decorated with baskets of gerbera and blue ribbons. Soloist was Mrs. Robert Obendorf with Mrs. Norman Obendorf as accompanist.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Merlyn Jones. She was attired in a floor-length gown of bonded crepe, empire style, with lace embroidery. Her bouquet was pink roses with white daisies in the form of a cross, centered by a corsage.

Maid of honor was Jane Treman, with Karla Krieh and Patty Jones as bridesmaids. They wore short blue peau de sole dresses with avocado and pink floral pattern of empire design. They carried single carnations.

Candlelighters were Martina Rogstad and Merl Jones. Martina's dress was identical to the bridesmaids. Coradee Rogstad was flower girl and wore pink peau de sole.

Len Hopkins, brother of the groom, served as best man, while ushers were Don Armstrong and Mel Omege. Terry Jones was ring-bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jones wore an avocado lace over satin. The groom's mother was attired in peach lace over satin. The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Guy Strong, wore pink lace over satin. Their corsages were created with tropaeonia rose buds and carnations.

The bride's sisters-in-law, Mrs. Guy Jones and Mrs. Merlyn Jones cut the cake. Assisting with the serving were the Misses Janice Johnson, Jeanette Miles, Jeannie Starr, Mmes. Clarence Tuning, Roy Swanson, William Simpson, Ed Obendorf, Oscar Peruez and Lyle Andrew.

The guestbook was taken care of by the bride's sister, Mrs.

OES Group Attends Silver City Event

A group of members of Golden Rule chapter No. 131, their families and friends traveled to Silver City on August 5 to attend the annual summer meeting of Silver Star chapter 83 of Homedale.

A potluck dinner preceded the meeting, followed by refreshments and dancing. Some members of the party stayed overnight and attended the Sunday morning breakfast before starting home.

Among Nyssans attending the session were Mossrs, and Mmes. Ray Huffman, Clarence Wernick, Glenn Marcum, Billy and Sara, Ralph Lowe and Mrs. Myrtle Alexander. Also attending were former Nyssans Mr. and Mrs. Paul House and Bonnie of Quincy, Wash.

The Houses, Lowes, Huffmans and Marcums did some sightseeing and rock hunting enroute home.

Leave For Chicago

OM/3 John Foster was discharged from the Navy on July 5 and with his wife and son spent the past month with his parents, the Eric Mauslings of the Big Bend community.

Foster entered the service on May 31, 1960 and served two years aboard the USS Bushnell at Key West, Fla., three years on the USS Tutuila at Norfolk, Va. and for the remaining time was land based at the New London, Conn. submarine base.

Leaving here, the trio spent two days visiting relatives in Colorado and are now at home in Chicago where Foster will be associated with Mariam Printers.

Delbert Magar. Attending the gift table were Marlene Slippey, Ella and Tamme Rogstad, Jennifer, Tom, Tim and Kathy Jones.

Among the out-of-area guests were Mrs. Glen Jones and daughter Patty of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones of Clarkston, Wash.; Mel Omege, Ted Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Jones and family of George, Wash.

The new Mrs. Hopkins was graduated from Adrian high school and Eastern Oregon college at La Grande.

Her husband is a graduate of Ontario high school, Treasure Valley Community college and Eastern Oregon college.

After a wedding trip to the coast, they will establish their home in Hood River where both will teach this fall.

"ROUND THE TOWN"

Mrs. Fred Poindexter and Mrs. Norma Cowden and sons Gerald and Charles of Blackfoot, Ida., recently stopped to visit their brother, Charles Steffens in Nyssa. They were enroute home from an extended trip of the Pacific coast from San Diego, Calif., to Port Angeles, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Eastman of Nyssa, served a patio dinner for Mrs. Bernard Eastman, Sr., of Payette. The event honored the elder Mrs. Eastman on her 85th birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Eastman and family were visitors later in the day.

Mrs. Michael Eastman's two brothers, Bernard and Paul Hamm of Ashland, Ore., recently stopped for a brief visit in Nyssa. They were enroute home from the World Scout jamboree Camp Farragut, Idaho. Geoffrey Eastman accompanied them home for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Al Chadwick, Mrs. Leo Gonyer and Mrs. Frances Bates visited recently with Myrtle Ilett at the Presbyterian nursing home in Ontario.

Miss Ella Liptak of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Forbess over the weekend.

Dennis Forbess of Vancouver, Wash., arrived home last week for his school class reunion, and is planning to stay for a few days with his parents, the Richard Forbess'.

Mr. and Mrs. David Beers spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Gann are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Dan Norland at Umatilla. Mrs. Norland underwent surgery last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Glenn had as visitors last week Mr.

and Mrs. Enoch Groberg and his brother, Lowell of Provo, Utah. The latter remained to work in the cannery. The Groberg boys are Mrs. Glenn's nephews.

Mrs. Frances Bates attended the Homedale fair with the family of her son, Tommy Bates. The latter was Homedale fair manager this year.

Trip To Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Murie Marcum returned last Sunday from a trip that took them into Canada. They visited the Harold Marcum's at Stanfield, Ore., then went on to Biggs Junction where they met their son, Melvin Marcum and family of Eugene, who accompanied them to Canada.

Crossing the Columbia river at Biggs they continued north through Yakima, Wenatche and Oroville, Wash., to the Canadian line at Osoyoos.

There they were advised it was unseasonably hot in the Kamloops country making fishing poor. They drove west to Princeton and Merrett, and several days were spent at Monk park on beautiful Lake Nicola. Then on to the Trans-Canadian highway at Spencer's Bridge and south to Chilliwack, stopping at the most beautiful lake of all, Lake Culus, where they stayed one night.

Some of the places the Marcums visited were Anacortes, Wash., Port Townsend, Clallam and down the Washington coast to Astoria where they crossed the new bridge at the mouth of the Columbia.

From Seaside they came inland and spent several days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. O.G. Marcum in Salem, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baronti at Eugene.

In Appreciation

We take this opportunity to thank women of Nyssa Methodist church and all our other friends for their many kindnesses expressed in thought and deed during her illness and following the death of our loved one. Your many kindnesses will always be remembered. — The family of Mrs. Harriet Pennie.

Steffens' Return From Rhode Island

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steffens recently returned to Nyssa by air from Providence, R. I., where Steffens had been studying at the National Science Foundation on the chemical bond approach to chemistry, at Brown university. Brown is one of the 'Ivy League' colleges.

Mrs. Steffens studied art at Rhode Island college, in Providence.

Interesting weekends were spent in various cities. One was to New York City to see the stage play 'Sweet Charity.' Several trips were made to Boston, Mass., visiting historical sights. One was walking the 'Freedom Trail.'

Visits to Lexington and Concord, Mass., where historical sights proved most informative. The Steffens boarded Old Ironsides, the oldest commissioned Naval ship; visited Plymouth Rock where the Pilgrims landed; and the reconstructed Sturbridge village, containing some of the old homes, banks and merchants buildings, etc., in use many years ago.

They also visited Port Mystic, Conn., where old whaling ships are moored; Ogunquit, Maine a lobster fishing area and resort town.

One of the most informative, was a visit to the Gorham silver factory in Providence. Then on the way home, four days were spent at Expo '67, in Montreal, Canada.

Colbys Say 'Hello'

Mr. and Mrs. Art Colby sent greetings to their Nyssa friends through Ellen Jones who recently visited with them by telephone while in Denver.

Colby, city manager at Thornton, said that minor damage occurred there during the Aug. 8 earthquake.

While in Colorado, Mrs. Jones visited her sister, Mrs. S. L. Matthews, at Longmont and her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. C. Trimble at Broomfield. She was enroute home after attending a July 23-28 graphoanalysis institute in Chicago.
