Lady Bowlers Discuss Rules, Future Events

A meeting of the Nyssa Women's Bowling association was held Monday evening at Brownie's cafe. President Eris Bertram was in charge of the session and plans were made for the coming bowling season.

Treasurer Naomi Fritts reported that association funds are very low and discussion was held regarding several money making projects. Members voted to sponsor a "bowldown" and Mable Fangen was named chairman for the event.

Mrs. Bertram explained some of the new WIBC rules and those not fully understood were discussed. It was noted that many of the local bowlers are not aware that WIBC dues must be paid the first night of bowling in a new session and league officers were urged to stress this point.

Mrs. Bertram was named delegate and Mrs. Fritts was selected as alternate to represent local women bowlers at the state meeting to be held next spring at Klamath Falls.

Other business included the appointing of several committees by the new president.
