Malheur Pioneers Choose Officers

Malheur pioneers held their 53 annual picnic August 25 at Vale. Over 161 attended, with representation from Los Angeles to Oklahoma City; Medford and Grants Pass to Boise and all surrounding communities.

Mrs. Glen Ryan, program chairman, introduced Speaker Harold Mallet. He talked on the history of the area, since the time his parents had settled in the valley, in comparison to the present.

Geroge McLaughlin was honored as the eldest pioneer. He was born in Vale in 1878.

Part of the business procedure of the annual affair is election of officers.

L. J. "Hop" Kinney of Ontario became president; Carrol Loecey of Ironside, vice president. Those re-elected were Mrs. Ora Laurance of Vale, secretary and Glenn High of Vale, treasurer.

Her husband is a graduate of the U. S. Naval academy at Annapolis, Md., and recently returned home after serving one year with the Marine Corps in Vietnam.

After a wedding trip to the east coast, the newlyweds are residing at Falls Church, Va., while the bridegroom is studying for his MA degree in finance and business management at George Washington university in Washington, D. C.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH STAPLES

In celebration of their golden wedding year, Nyssans Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Staples, former residents of South Weber, Utah, were honored with an August 11, 1967 family dinner at Nampa.

Hosts and hostess for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moore of Ontario and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Moore, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Kesler Jr. of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore of Nampa.

Sam Moore, a former Nyssa resident, made his home with the Staples couple from age seven until his marriage.

The honorees were greeted by relatives and friends on August 14 in their home, with the Sam Moore family hosting the event.

The couple was married August 14, 1917 in Salt Lake City and the marriage was later solemnized in the LDS temple there.

Mr. Staples was born at Coalville, Utah on Oct. 15, 1894, a son of James B. and Sarah Ellen Ray Staples. Mrs. Staples, daughter of Daniel and Ann Elizabeth Smith Moore, was also born at Coalville on Feb. 27, 1895.

Legion Groups To Hear Boys', Girls' Staters

A potluck dinner-meeting will be held at 7 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 7 at the Legion Hall in Nyssa. At this time the Legionnaires of Post 79 and auxiliary members will hear reports from Otto Heider, Denzile Weeks and Linda Ballou who were delegates to Boys' and Girls' State.

Boys' State Chairman Charles Steffens urges all Legionnaires and auxiliary members to attend this meeting and hear the interesting experiences these youths have had in training for citizenship and democracy.

Gem Group To Meet

Treasure Valley Rock and Gem club members will meet at 8 p.m., Friday, Sept. 15 at Nyssa Christian church. Program will be, "Casting of Plastics for Small Articles."

"Electric heat is quiet"

MRS. WILLIAM NEU, AMERICAN FALLS

"Total electric living has just been wonderful"

"Electric heat is quiet," says Mrs. Neu. "When my husband and I decided on electric heat for our new home, it ended the noisy blowing of off-again, on-again heating for us. Total electric living has just been wonderful. We would never again be satisfied with anything else."

Make a clean break with the past!

Simple interest loans—$500 to $2000—for electric heat modernizing are available now. You can get full information and planning assistance at your local Idaho Power office.
