

Colby Twins Of Colorado

Visit With Area Friends

By Virginia Cleaver

BUENA VISTA — Linda and Ann Colby, twin daughters of former Nyssans Mr. and Mrs. Art Colby of Thornton, Colo., recently spent two weeks in the Thurman Piercy home. They also visited other friends in the Nyssa area.

Recent visitors in the James Stephen home were the James O. Stephen family of Burns. Kathy, Debbie and Lonnie stayed for a longer visit with their grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stephen of Seattle; Marian Paulson of Salem; her sister, Sonja Paulson and her niece, Martha Joan Hansen of Omaha, Neb., were also recent visitors in the Stephen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Field and children of Laramie, Wyo., recently visited for several days in the homes of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Field and his brother, Dean Field.

Harriett Cleaver is at home for a three-week vacation before returning to her work in Corvallis.

Visitors in the LaVerne Cleaver home last week were her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Whitehead of Nyssa; her eldest daughter, Ida Chambers and daughter of Salem. Another visitor was Mrs. Whitehead's youngest daughter, Myrtle Lawrence of Nyssa. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bowen and children and the Fred Schillings were recent evening visitors in the Cleaver home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Burton, nee Theresa Tanner, and Audrey Tanner spent a recent weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tanner, Shane and Kim accompanied them to their homes in Salt Lake City. The Guy Tanners and Gerald Horns spent a recent weekend fishing and camping in the Little Malheur area.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Hunsucker and children were recent Sunday visitors in the Mancil Bishop home.

Sam Cleaver recently returned from Idaho Falls, and was accompanied home by former Nyssan Steve Petrie. The youths are now working in the area.

Mrs. Glenn Hoffman recently left for Nebraska to visit a brother who is recuperating from recent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bowen and children spent several recent days in the Fred Schilling home. Carolyn Bohannon of Nampa visited August 20 with her mother, Mrs. Schilling. A recent birthday dinner was served in the Schilling home to honor Freddie on his anniversary. The Bob Meisingers of Nyssa and Dennis Auker of Nampa were recent Sunday visitors in the Schilling residence.

Leaves For Florida

Mrs. Charmain Roverano and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Guy Osburn drove to American Falls August 25, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Terrent Michels, parents of Mrs. Osburn.

Mrs. Osburn returned home with Mrs. Roverano for a brief visit. She left August 30 to join her husband at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

Mrs. Alva Goodell and Bruce left last week for Portland where the latter was admitted to a clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cole of Payette were recent Sunday dinner guests of her parents, the Lester Cleavers. The Cleavers recently received a picture postcard from their son, Truman who is vacationing in Spain. He plans to go on to Italy, and is camping along the way. Truman plans to be married Nov. 25 this year.

Thurman Piercy received recent word that his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Leader is quite ill in Buhl, Idaho.
