

MR. AND MRS. JOHN THOMAS WORTENDYKE

On Saturday, Sept. 2, 1967, at a 4 p.m. Nuptial Mass in St. Bridget's Catholic church, Lynn Marie Jackson and John Thomas Wortendyke were united in marriage.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Wilton C. Jackson of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Wortendyke of Rockport, Wash.

Father Cletus Kirkpatrick performed the double-ring rites in the presence of 200 guests. Large bronze and gold daisy mums graced the altar, and honey-gold tapers were lighted by Altar Boys Mike and Maurice Smith. Soloist was Miss Shelly Flynn and organist was Mrs. Dick Weymouth, both of Ontario.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Jackson was attired in a gown of imported lace, designed with empire bodice, with the back a loose tent-style falling into a chapel-length train. Her veil of silk illusion was waist length, and she carried a cascading bouquet of goldrush roses on a white Prayer book.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Gary Mason. She wore an avocado moire floor-length gown. Her bouquet was a replica of the one carried by the bride, made with large bronze mums.

Attending their sister as bridesmaids were the Misses

Marcia and Nancy Jackson, with another sister, Jill Jackson serving as junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were identical to that of the matron of honor, except for her train, and their flowers were of cascade design, in antique gold daisy mums.

Megan Jackson, youngest sister of the bride, was flower girl and wore an A-line floor-length frock of avocado moire and tulle. Ringbearer was Thomas Jackson, five-year-old brother of the bride.

Serving as best man was Bill Pigeon of California, while ushers were Jack Thompson of Portland and Bruce Jackson, brother of the bride.

A reception was held in the Catholic church social hall and was catered by women of the Methodist church. The wedding cake was decorated with gold mums and fern, topped with a golden bell.

Cutting the cake were Mrs. Harry Lee McCrory of Eugene, aunt of the bridegroom and Mrs. William Wahlert of Nyssa. Coffee was poured by Mrs. David Sarazin and punch was served by Mrs. Charles Quinowski, both of Nyssa.

Miss Maureen Iven of Orange, Calif., and Miss Nadine Spitz of Nyssa helped with the gift table, while Mrs. Mateo Sillonis of Adrian was in charge of the guest book.

Special Events
Fete Bride-Elect

Among special events honoring Miss Lynn Jackson, prior to her marriage to John Wortendyke was a shower given in May by girls in Callahan hall at Oregon State university, where Lynn was a counselor last year. In July Mrs. Mateo Sillonis and Mrs. Rose Burns were hostesses for a miscellaneous shower held in the garden at the Burns residence. Guests were a number of Lynn's former NHS classmates and other close friends.

A personal shower was given in August by Mrs. Robert Wilson in her home. Highlights of the evening were special songs which held romantic members for the bride elect. They were sung by Miss Marilyn Lewis, accompanied by Miss Susan Leavitt, and a reading by Mrs. Wilson giving comments made by Lynn during the evening.

After the wedding rehearsal on the morning of Sept. 2, members of the bridal party, Father Cletus Kirkpatrick and close relatives of the couple were guests for brunch in a downtown restaurant. The tables were decorated with bronze mums and gold candles.

Place cards were gold bells, tied with white ribbons. Gifts from the bride and groom to their attendants were placed at their chairs, and toasts were made to the couple by their best man, Bill Pigeon, and by the bride's father, Wilton C. Jackson. John also gave a toast to his future wife, with a special verse.

carried out the color theme at the reception, with the serving table centered with gold candles in amber glass containers.

Special guests were the groom's grandmother, Mrs. B. Wortendyke of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCrory of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wortendyke of Boise, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hillman, the bride's grandparents from Victorville, Calif., and Miss Maureen Iven of Orange, Calif., cousin of the bride.

For her traveling ensemble, the new Mrs. Wortendyke chose a suit of pink wool flannel and matching hat, with black patent accessories.

The bride attended the University of Portland and Oregon State university. She plans to resume her studies this fall at Portland State. The bridegroom attended Washington State and was graduated this spring from OSU. He is presently employed by the Forest Service in Portland, and the couple will reside at 829 S. E. 15th street.

But he did until he heard the Standard School Broadcast's orchestra play a selection by this great Russian composer.

George is one of about three million students in the West who listen to our radio program in their classrooms each week. For many it may be their first opportunity to hear the world's great music - an experience which may open the door to a lifelong, rewarding interest.

We've provided this aid to education for 40 years. Why? We're specialists in natural resources and we realize that youth is the greatest natural resource there is. The more we help young people now, the more they'll contribute to our country in the future.

The Standard School Broadcast, scholarships, fellowships and teaching materials are but a few of the ways our Company shows its continuing interest in today's young men and women.

Standard Oil is trying to help young people discover more about themselves ... and the world they live in.
