

CARL MATTHES

YOUNG AMERICAN VIRTUOSO, will appear before Community Concert patrons Monday, November 20 at the Ontario high school auditorium. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. The youthful pianist has taken great strides toward national recognition as a concert pianist. This past season he performed as soloist in Carnegie Hall, Hollywood Bowl, and the Seattle Center Coliseum. He has been soloist with the San Francisco Symphony, Josef Krips conducting. Mr. Matthes made his professional European debut at Wigmore Hall, London, and, in addition to other performances in England, he participated in the International Music Festivals at Barcelona, Spain and Montreal, Canada.

Members of Golden Rule chapter No. 131, Order of Eastern Star, held their regular meeting Nov. 6, at the Masonic hall, with Worthy Matron, Della Holmes presiding.

Patricia Marcum, grand committee member of the Estarl committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, gave her official report to her chapter.

This being fall and winter birthday night, those having birthdays from July to December were honored. Amelia Pratt was chairman of an old fashioned birthday party and all wore traditional hats.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wernick and Myrtle Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holmes, Worthy Matron and Patron of Golden Rule chapter No. 131, Helen Wilson and Patricia Marcum, Grand Eastern Star Estarl committee member attended Nov. 9 friendship night at Mt. Olive No. 52 in Parma.

Patricia Marcum, Grand Eastern Star Estarl committee member made her official visit to Burns chapter No. 40 on Nov. 13. Accompanying her were Della Holmes, Worthy Matron; Lois Cartwright, grand representative of Maine in Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wernick.

CHRISTINA FEIK

A spring wedding is being planned by Miss Feik and Larry Campbell, who will be married in the LDS temple at Salt Lake City. Parents of the betrothed couple are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Feik of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Campbell of Ontario. The bride-elect is employed in the office of Dr. Louis Barinaga in Ontario. Her fiancé works for Arden's Communications at Meridian.

Women To Prepare Veterans' Cookies

Nyssa American Legion Auxiliary's annual project, preparing bags of cookies for the Boise Veteran's hospital, will be at 2 P.M. Dec. 4, at the Legion hall.

Anyone wishing to contribute cookies is asked to contact Mrs. Lloyd Tobler of 609 Park Ave., or Mrs. H. O. Hopkins at 113 No. 3rd St. or take them to the hall on Dec. 4.

All donations will be appreciated.

MR. AND MRS. ORVILLE DALE ANDERSON

The Nyssa LDS Stake chapel was the scene of an Oct. 21, 1967 evening wedding ceremony, uniting Miss Larva Payne and Orville Dale Anderson. Parents of the newweds are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Payne of route 2, Parma; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Anderson of Nyssa.

Before an archway and fence, covered with huckleberry leaves and flowers, the double-ring rites were performed by Nyssa First Ward's Bishop R. Frell Blair, in the presence of 100 guests. Soloist was Terry Martin, accompanied by Rosemary Martin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in white satin gown of Empire design, with lace flowing to the floor, forming a slight train in back. She carried a bouquet of white roses, blue carnations and blue ribbon trim.

Maid of honor was Lela Fry, while bridesmaids were Renae St. Clair and Marva Lou Wilson. They wore street-length Empire frocks of blue brocade and carried white chrysanthemums.

Laura Lee St. Clair was flower girl, and was also dressed in blue brocade. Ricky Wilson attended as ring-bearer.

Charles L. Smith served as best man, while ushers were Bud Wilhite, Terry Martin, Charles Anderson and Dennis Wilson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Payne wore a blue sheath dress and corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a brown ensemble, with red-rose corsage.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, with refreshments served by Mmes. Solon Lewis, Lyle Miner and Emil Wholeck. Aleta Anderson was in charge of guest registration and gifts were cared for by Cheryl Anderson and Anita Ellison. Mrs. John Marsh provided reception music.

The new Mrs. Anderson was graduated from Fruitland high school. Her husband is a graduate of Nyssa high school and is now studying at Northwest Nazarene college in Nampa and is employed at the Simplot plant in Caldwell.

The newweds are now at home at 103 Maple street in Nampa.

Make Flowers

Past presidents of the Nyssa American Legion auxiliary met Nov. 6, at the home of Mrs. Joe Maughan.

Flowers were made for the Portland Veteran's wheel chair parade in Portland. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Pomona Grange Meeting Slated

County Extension Agent Roger Fletcher will be the guest speaker at the Malheur Pomona Grange meeting to be held Saturday, November 18 at the Ontario Heights grange hall.

Lunch will be served at noon by women of the host grange, with the meeting to follow.

Officers will participate in a service explaining what the flame of the centennial candle has meant to them during this 100th year of grange activity.

During the lecturer's program, members will try to win some "turkey" table decorations for their granges.

Pomona Master Ira Price urges all Malheur County grangers to attend. Grangers from other areas are also welcome.

HOME EC. GROUP REPORTS ACTIVITIES

Members of the Home Economics club of Oregon Trail Grange met Nov. 7 at the home of Mrs. James Stephen.

Plans for a potluck dinner, preceding the booster night program scheduled for Nov. 16, were completed. Grangers and friends are cordially invited and urged to attend.

The afternoon was spent inspecting a display of Sarah Coventry jewelry, arranged by Mrs. Loyd Adams in the absence of Mrs. Addie Vinson-haller who was unable to attend because of a mishap with some gasoline.

Refreshments were served to 15 members by co-hostess Mrs. Frank Holub. Next meeting will be the Dec. 5 Christmas party at the grange hall. Gifts not to exceed $1 will be exchanged following a potluck dinner.

Senior Citizen Events

Senior Citizens met Nov. 10 at Nyssa Methodist church. It was agreed upon that, because of conflicts with family gatherings during Thanksgiving week, the regular meeting will be held tomorrow, Nov. 17 instead of Nov. 24.

A Thanksgiving dinner will be potluck, featuring roast chicken. - Lois Council.

State Official To Visit Jobies

Mrs. Marybelle Kowolowski, grand guardian of International Order of Job's Daughters for the State of Oregon, on Nov. 16, will be making her official visitation to Nyssa.

A 6 P.M. potluck dinner is planned by the Jobies, with the meeting to follow.

Hospital Group Reports On Tea

On Saturday, Nov. 11, 1967, women of Malheur Memorial hospital auxiliary, under chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Michael and Mrs. Joe Maughan, held a tea in the spacious home of the Fred Brackens. There was a good attendance, considering the many activities going on in surrounding communities.

Mrs. Jessie Morgan was in charge of the tea table, with Mrs. Gerrit Stam pouring coffee and Mrs. Richard Forbess in charge of the punch bowl.

A beautiful fall centerpiece of various colored chrysanthemums from the garden of Mrs. Orland Cheldelin, as arranged by Mrs. Bud Wilson, attracted the attention of everyone.

Sandwiches and cookies were furnished by active members of the auxiliary.

After a short welcome by Auxiliary President Mrs. Wesley Brown, a very interesting and educational program was given by Mrs. Charles Newbill, showing many slides of her trip to South America last winter.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Tobler of Caldwell were Friday luncheon guests of his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Tobler.

Mrs. Al Law, Mrs. John Dougal and Earl Linebaugh of Boise were Nov. 8 dinner guests of Mrs. George McKee.
