

THIS BIG CHURCH WORLD SERVICE TRUCK arrived Dec. 15 in Nyssa, and 1,420 pounds of clothing was packed into it from the Nyssa-Adrian area. The clothing came from eight or more churches in the area. Enough money was donated by individuals and women's groups to cover the ten cents per pound for processing. The women's groups of the churches and other residents of the Nyssa-Adrian area are to be praised for their excellent response to this 1967 fall CWS clothing drive. The women's groups are also to be highly commended for excellent work in boxing and tying the clothing. The CWS men, Owen Peterson and Jay Good who are city the Church of the Brethren volunteer service at Modesto, Calif., commented on how well the boxes were tied, and expressed their appreciation. Pictured with them are the Rev. Wallace Prowell and the Rev. Ralph A. Lawrence of the Nyssa Christian and Methodist churches, respectively. Pastor Lawrence holds the family's small dog, Pippi. The next Nyssa-Adrian area clothing collection will be at the union Good Friday services on April 12, 1968. Those who missed this drive may take clothing to their own churches so that it may be prepared for the spring collection. - GCJ photo.
