NHS Lads Bow To Enterprise, Emmett Squad

Enterprise outdueled Nyssa in the final stages to record a 57-56 basketball triumph over the Bulldogs Saturday night. Dave Storm hit on a pair of free throws in the waning seconds for Enterprise enroute to the win. Ted Freels paced the Savage attack with 18 points while Dan Wilson had 20 to top Nyssa.
The loss left Nyssa with a 1-5 record for the season. Other Nyssa scores were made by Chester 6, Ross 10, Jefferies and Shaw 7, E. Wilson, Beck, and Lewis 2.
The search for a win at Emmett has come to an end. The Huskies, after a dismal start, come on strong in the second

Antelopes Take Hoop Tilts From Jordan Valley, Notus

The Adrian Antelopes avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of the Jordan Valley Mustangs by defeating them 71 to 63 Friday night.
Adrian put on a very effective half-court press which forced Jordan Valley into making errors.
The Antelopes' scoring was led by George Gonzales, with rebounding honors going to Tim Holly and Alan Zikmund.
Adrian had four players in double figures, led by Gonzales' 15 points. Bias Telleria was the Mustangs' high-point man with 30 counters.
Other Adrian scores were made by Zikmund, 11; Glaze, Holly and Tim Tallman, 10 each; Steve Krieh, 9; Pud Franks, 6.

FROSH - SOPH GAME

In the Frosh - Soph game Adrian defeated Jordan Valley 42 to 27 Friday evening, giving them a 4 - 1 record. Scoring was led by Mike Wenke and Mark Pratt.

Adrian - Notus

The Adrian hoopsters opened their SRV A-4 season with a sound 64-45 victory over Notus Saturday evening. It gave the Antelopes a 1-0 league record and brought their season tally to 3-3.
Adrian again put on a half-court press that led to many Notus mistakes. This, along with a well-balanced scoring attack and strong rebounding by Alan Zikmund and Pud Franks, led to the Antelopes' second consecutive win.
The Antelopes were ahead throughout the game, leading 34-31 at halftime. Adrian had three players in double figures, led by George Gonzales with 14 points. Notus was led by Carter La Vay's 10 counters.
Adrian's other points were tossed through the rings by Tim Tallman, 12; Steve Krieh, 10; Glaze 9; Alan Zikmund, 7;
