OBITUARIES

THOMAS GALLIGAR THOMAS F. WISER

Final rites for Thomas Lawrence Galligar, 71, were conducted Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 17, 1968 at the Payette Chapel of the Roses, with interment made at Rosedale Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Galligar succumbed Monday morning at a Boise hospital.

He was born June 20, 1896 in Okabeja, S. D., and went to the Payette area where he had farmed since 1939. He was a World War I veteran.

The deceased is survived by four sons, Thomas J. of Fairfax, Calif., William L. of Payette; James E. of Ontario and George L. Galligar in Okinawa; five daughters, Mrs. Dale (Roxie) Hunt of Salem, Mrs. Richard (Helen) Parker of Eugene, Mrs. Gene (Harriet) Hale of Payette, Mrs. Lawrence (Rose) Noel of Nyssa and Mrs. Ves (June) Kramer of Spokane.

Other survivors include 26 grandchildren. A brother, Wil-Galligar died two years ago.

JOSEPHINE RUSSELL

Services for Mrs. Josephine Russell, 66, of rural Parma, were conducted at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 17, 1968 at the LDS church in Parma. Officiating was Bishop Louis Phillips.

Mrs. Russell succumbed Saturday at the hospital in Ontario.

She was born March 20, 1901 in Springville, Utah, and had been a resident of the Parma area for the past 29 years.

In addition to her husband, Francis L. Russell of the home, the deceased is survived by three sons, Keith of Portland, Blair and Ray Russell, both of California; one daughter, Mrs. Frank (Elaine) Hicks of The Dalles.

Also surviving are 12 grandchildren, one great grandchild and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Larson of Springville.

Interment was made in the Rosedale Memorial cemetery at Payette, under direction of Lienkaemper chapel of Nyssa.

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to extend our thanks to all the kind friends who so thoughtfully sent food, flowers and supplied comforting companionship during the illness and death of our loved one. -- Mrs. Jesse G. C. Elgan, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Elgan Jr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Elgan and family.

ADRIAN PTA MEETING

A meeting of the Adrian PTA unit will be held this evening, Jan. 18 at 8:15 in the school cafeteria.

Guest speaker will be Marvin Pash, an FBI agent who retired after 30 years of service.

He was asked by the District Attorney to investigate the Watts riot in California. His 'findings' will be the subject of his talk.

Pash is now teaching Police Science at Treasure Valley Community college.

Refreshments will be served at this evening's meeting, and all area residents are invited to attend.

THANKS TO FRIENDS

John Moran of the Apple Valley community, returned to his home on Dec. 9, after undergoing a second surgery on Nov. 29 at St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise. His first surgery was on Oct. 16.

The Morans have asked the Journal to express their appreciation to friends for the many Christmas cards, messages of cheer, flowers and other kindnesses shown to Mr. Moran and members of his family. A special 'thank-you' goes to members of the Apple Valley PTA.

Donald J. Leuck of Baker, was a recent overnight guest of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson. He was enroute home after minor surgery at St. Luke's hospital in Boise.

Serviceman Defines New Years In Japan

NEWELL HEIGHTS - The Eugene Pratts report receiving a letter from their son, Michael, who is stationed in Japan. He wrote that the country's activities come to a complete halt for the Japanese New Year's holiday.

The quiet celebration lasts from Dec. 30 through Jan. 5, and everything is closed. The hospitals retain a small staff, and doctors are all on leave.

The people go to a resort, a shrine or travel for the celebration. On the first day of work, after the holiday, they go late, quit early and wish a "Happy New Year" to all.

MEMBERS OF A NORTHWEST CHRISTIAN college trio and their Pianist Catherine Patch of Boise. The vocalists are (l to r) Sunday LeBoeuf of Riggins, Idaho, first soprano; JoAnn Buhmann of Hermiston, Ore., second soprano; and Carol Van Fleet of Bell, Calif., alto. The girls are all sophomores at NCC in Eugene. They were trained by Professor Eugene Pearson, a vocal artist of wide experience, choral director and vocal music instructor at the college. The trio will appear Sunday evening Jan. 21 at a dinner in the basement of Nyssa Christian church. Serving of the banquet will begin at 5 o'clock. At that time the girls will present a concert of sacred music. They can also be heard between 3:30 and 4 p.m. Sunday over KSRV radio. At 7 o'clock Sunday evening, there will be the beginning meeting of a week of services in which Sydney Carnes will be guest speaker. He is pastor of the First Christian church in Nampa.
