

A CHRISTMAS PARTY SCENE in the nursing home wing at Malheur Memorial hospital on Dec. 22, 1967 as members of the hospital auxiliary and ANK garden club treated the elderly residents. Seated (l to r) are Clyde Gilbert, Alice Peterson, Rose Griffith and Emil Troph. Santa Clausette didn't really want to be identified, but since she's such a cute one, this Journal reporter can say that she is an officer of the auxiliary and her initials are E. L. (which stand for Ethel Lawrence alias Mrs. Ralph G.) The garden club and auxiliary women, not only treated the patients to cookies and punch, but all twelve of the nursing home residents were given nice gifts, personally selected by Mrs. Joe

(Loretta) Cundall, ANK's chairman for the project. Other senior citizens who were honored include Augusta Anderson, Clarence Goodman, Denzaburo Kitamura, Ruby Mills, Carlos Ramirez, John Schultz, Florence Storey and Mary Thomas. The auxiliary's share of the treats was furnished through funds provided from the group's various profit-making events staged throughout the year. Oh yes, SCEL said "Please mention that the Jolly Old Gentleman's suit was loaned by the Nyssa Chamber of Commerce - and I'm sure we'll want to borrow it again next year." So it must have been a rewarding party because a repeat performance is planned. - Schoen Photo
