

Sharla Starr, Jesse Pierce Wed In Rupert

In a Dec. 28, 1967 ceremony at the First Pentecostal church in Rupert, Idaho, Sharla Rae Starr became the bride of Jesse Raymond Pierce, Jr., a former resident of Nyssa.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Charles B. Thompson of Rupert. His new bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ellis Spaght of Coos Bay, Ore.

The church was decorated in holiday colors of mint green and white. An archway was covered with Christmas boughs, entwined with twinkling lights. The bride was attired in a white gown, fashioned with flowing train, and she carried a bouquet of gold poinsettias on a white Bible.

The maid of honor wore a mint-green dress and carried a single gold poinsettia, with green ribbon.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Thompson wore a pale-orange ensemble. The bride's mother was unable to attend the wedding and reception which followed.

The new Mrs. Pierce is a 1967 graduate of Coquille high school, and her husband was graduated in 1964 from high school in Fruitland, Idaho.

The bridegroom is now serving in the United States Air Force, and is stationed at the radar site in North Bend, Ore.

CLUB MEETINGS

The Out Our Way club members held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Leslie Topliff. This was a combination business meeting and bridal shower in honor of Mrs. James Bishop.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Virginia Cleaver.

The regular meeting of the members of the Tuesday afternoon bridge club, met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Larson, Sr. Guests were Mrs. Virginia Brandt and Mrs. Joseph Maughan. Prize winners were Mrs. A. C. Sallee and Mrs. Maughan.

Members of the Pleasant Hour club met at the home of Mrs. Eugene Stephen, for a quilting bee. At noon a pot-luck dinner was served.

Birthday Party Held

Geoffrey Eastman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Eastman, was honored with an after-school birthday party Jan. 9. Eight boy friends helped him celebrate his eighth anniversary.

MR. AND MRS. PAIGE ZOBELL

Miss Sherry Evelyn Hust became the bride of Paige Zobell in a double-ring ceremony performed Friday, Dec. 15, 1967 in the LDS temple at Logan, Utah.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hust of the Arcadia area near Nyssa, and Former Nyssans Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zobell of Ogden, Utah.

The couple was honored with a Dec. 16 reception at the Nyssa LDS stake house recreation hall.

The room was decorated with baskets of red, pink and white chrysanthemums, and the tables were graced with pink cloths, centered by holly wreaths and cranberry-colored tapers. The wedding cake was centered on a lace-covered table, flanked by candelabra containing cranberry candles.

The bride was attired in a princess-style gown of brocade, trimmed with fur. Her veil of nylon net was secured to a headband of matching fur and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and red velour leaves.

Miss Karon Hust, dressed in a floor-length gown of cranberry Swami cloth, was maid of honor for her sister.

Other sisters, Laura Gardner and Carla Hust, and Kathleen McPartland were bridesmaids, with another sister, Georgia Lynn Hust attending as junior bridesmaid, and Dawn Gardner, a niece, serving as flower girl. They were attired in pink Swami cloth frocks of the same design as that of the maid of honor.

Royce Zobell served as best man for his brother.

For her daughter's reception, Mrs. Hust wore a suit of pink silk. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an orange brocade coat-dress, and both wore corsages of white carnations.

Assisting with serving refreshments were Mmes. Marion Glenn, John Schenk, W. A. Mitchell, Pamela Skeen and Lori Blair.

Caring for gifts were Mmes. Larry Glenn, Jerry Hendricks and Sonda Hust. Guests were registered by Vickie Lynn Maddox, the bride's cousin. Gift carriers were Toni Petterson, Tony and Scott Gardner and Robin Froerer.

Bill Hust served as master of ceremonies for the reception program, and the opening prayer was given by Bishop Glen Peterson.

Linda Ballou sang, "Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "Love Is What The World Needs Now." Patti Petterson presented two dance numbers in modern jazz and a Charleston tap, while a comedy song, "Side By Side" was rendered by Wendie Bain and Colleen Staples.

Peggy Moore gave a comedy reading and a piano duet was presented by Kathy and DeAnn Peterson, Laura Gardner, Karon and Carla Hust sang, "More", as a special request of the bride.

A brief talk to the newlyweds was given by Bishop Frell Blair.

The new Mrs. Zobell is a 1963 graduate of Nyssa high school and plans to get her degree in accounting at Brigham Young university in the spring. The bridegroom was graduated from NHS in 1962, served a two-year LDS mission in Mexico and will graduate in electrical engineering in 1969 from BYU in Provo, Utah.

Following a wedding trip to northern Idaho, the newlyweds are now at home at 5-A 249 Wymount Terrace in Provo.

Gardeners Hear Hoffman Speak On Cacti Hobby

Mrs. Joe Cundall entertained Jan. 9 for members of the ANK garden club, and was assisted by Mrs. Ernie Metcalf. Fifteen women were present for the afternoon meeting.

Guest speaker was Neil Hoffman of the Malheur experimental farm. He talked, informally, about his hobby of collecting cacti and displayed magazines showing various varieties in bloom. He invited interested club members to visit the farm. Several members are already enthusiasts.

Miss Jean Poulton, daughter of Mrs. Raymond Poulton of Parma, was a guest. She has been teaching in New Zealand for the past three years. She told of her experiences there and mentioned organizing tours of that country. The idea will probably be pursued further at subsequent meetings.

Mrs. Gerrit Stam reported on gifts given to residents of the nursing home wing at Malheur Memorial hospital, at a Christmas party given in conjunction with the hospital auxiliary. Mrs. Cundall, chairman of the project, had selected special gifts for each patient.

Next meeting of the garden club will be at the home of Mrs. Carl Powers at Parma where members will learn basic rules of pruning.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE WINNERS

Duplicate bridge winners for Jan. 15 regular play, are announced by Mrs. Houston Wilson, hostess for the weekly parties.

First place honors went to Dr. and Mrs. K. A. Danford. Second place went to Ann Halberg and Maryann Beck. Third place was taken by Mrs. Ray Russell and Dr. L. A. Maulding.

Next session will be regular play, Jan. 22 at the Houston Wilson home.

Senior Citizen Events

Members of the Senior Citizens club met Friday at the Methodist church for their regular meeting. The next meeting will be Thursday, Jan. 25 in the Conference room of the New Nyssa Public library. Entrance will be through the door on the alley side of the building.

4-H CLUB NEWS

CHEERFUL HEALTH CLUB

Fourth meeting of the Cheerful Health club was held Jan. 4, 1968, with President Tom Church calling the session to order. We repeated the 4-H pledge and flag salute, and answered roll call by saying "yes" or "no" to whether we had cooked something. Dean Sappe, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting.

The following reports were given: "Good Food is Safe Food," by Steven Sage; "Keeping the Food Value," by Debra Alexander and "Cooking Pork" by Debbie Bratton. We all checked to see that our books were completed.

"The Star Spangled Banner" was sung, under direction of our song leaders. Steven Sage, game chairman, showed us how to play "The Dog and the Bone." Tom Church assigned Frank Moore as game chairman for the next meeting. - Debra Alexander, reporter.

ADRIAN LIVESTOCK CLUB MEETING SET

An organizational meeting of the Adrian Livestock 4-H club will be held Tuesday evening, January 23, with activities beginning at 8 o'clock. The session will be held in the high school building.

Any child who was nine years old, as of Jan. 1, 1968, is invited to attend and welcome to join the club. New members should take at least one parent to the meeting.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Jim Phifer, phone number 372-2855.

Music Group To Meet

Members of the Treasure Valley Music association will meet Jan. 19 at East Side cafe in Ontario.

Bill Schenk, head of the music department at Treasure Valley Community college, will speak at 11 a.m. and luncheon will be served at noon.
