

MR. AND MRS. JAMES COOK

Red and white were the colors chosen by Roberta Breshears as she was given in marriage by her father to James Cook on December 23, 1967 at the Community Church in Parma.

The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Paul Nickens of Parma, in the presence of 200 guests. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Breshears of Nyssa and Mrs. Irene Cook of Nampa.

The bride was attired in a gown of silk organza and lace, and carried a bouquet of spider mums. Her floor-length veil of illusion net was held in place by a pearl-tiara.

The church was decorated with poinsettias, white mums and garlands of greenery. Maid of honor was Darlene Breshears, sister of the bride; while bridesmaids were Louella Findling, Frances Cruson and Kathleen Dority. Candelighters were Gloria and Mary Jane Breshears, with Rene Johnson as flower girl. All of the girls were in floor-length redchiffon cage dresses, and carried single spider mums with red streamers.

Bobby Cook served as best man for his brother; while Gary Breshears, brother of the bride, Marvin Breshears and Ken Findling were attendants, and Billy Maples was ring-bearer. Organist was Judy Teter. She also accompanied Sherlene Teter as she sang, "Whither Thou Goest," and the "Lord's Prayer."

A special guest was the bride's great-grandmother, Mrs. Bertie Breshears of Caldwell.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Breshears chose a three-piece dress of ecru rayon-knit, with a gold thread and accessories of gold. Mother of the bridegroom wore a three-piece dress of blue crepe and lace, with blue accessories. Both wore corsages of white spider mums.

A reception followed in the community house, decorated in red and white. Mrs. Harlan Breshears, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Bert Huskinson, the bridegroom's aunt, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Kenneth Findling served coffee while Mrs. Ivan Jarvis served the punch. Mrs. Phillip Breshears was in charge of the groom's table.

Mrs. Dick McCurry, Mrs. Cecilia Breshears, the Misses Shelia Huffman, Sylvia Brown and Diane Jennings opened and presented the gifts. Gift carriers were Dianna McCurry, Tina and Amy Findling, Sherry and Linda Breshears, Rene Somers and Faith Seward were in charge of the guest book.

After a short honeymoon, the couple are at home in Nampa where the new Mrs. Cook is a student at Northwest Nazarene college and her husband is employed in Caldwell.

Emblem Group Dates Feb. 10 Annual Event

In the absence of President Evelyn Shaw, Vice President Annabelle Herndon presided over the January business meeting of Ontario Emblem Club No. 192.

The social for this month was the mother-daughter banquet on Jan. 22 at the lodge hall.

Verna Coffinbury reported there were 161 pints of blood given at the drawing held January 4, and TVCC students again won the trophy for having the most donors.

Plans for the annual sweetheart ball, to be held at the Elks Lodge hall on Feb. 10, were discussed by Chairman Donella Bybee. Mary Danielson is chairman of the smorgasbord.

Mary Danielson reported that around 100 children attended the Emblem Christmas party. Extra candy and stockings were given to the Elks to put in their Christmas baskets.

The scholarship committee reminded members that anyone having a senior boy or girl wishing to apply for the Emblem scholarship should contact Annabelle Herndon for rules and brochures.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room. Verna Coffinbury was Chinese auction winner.

LYNNE ARLENE LAW

Her engagement to Michael L. McCrady was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ridgley R. Law of Corbett, Ore. Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McCrady of Nyssa. The bride-elect and her fiancé are both students at the University of Oregon in Eugene. She is a junior majoring in music education and he is a senior accounting major. A September wedding is being planned by the betrothed couple.

Barker - Freel Wedding Rites

In a 7 o'clock evening ceremony on Jan. 13, 1968 at the Ontario Methodist church, Miss Scindia Barker became the bride of Monty Freel.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Barker of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Freel of Adrian.

Before an altar, flanked with chrysanthemums, the singlerites were performed by the Rev. Tom Foster.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of blue and silver brocade, with overcoat of silver and gold lace. She carried a white orchid bouquet.

Sharon Freel, sister of the bridegroom attended as maid of honor. She was dressed in a frock of rose-colored brocade and carried an orchid corsage. Steve Derrick served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barker wore a dress of white crepe, the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a rose-colored wool suit and each wore an orchid corsage.

A three-tier cake, trimmed with pink roses and topped with miniature bride and groom, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the home of the bride's parents.

The new Mrs. Freel is a member of the senior class at Ontario. Her husband is a 1966 graduate of Adrian high school and is employed by Freel Brothers trucking firm.

Grangers Meet For Conference

An officers training session and conference for Malheur county grange members was held Jan. 14 at Boulevard grange hall.

The meeting was arranged by Mrs. Alva Amidon, county deputy. State Deputy Robert Coble, Mrs. Coble, Mrs. Betty Bunyard of Richland, Ore. and Mrs. Iva Ranes of Baker were among those present. Coble conducted the meeting and gave instruction in floor work.

Grange members from Boulevard, Ontario Heights and Oregon Trail granges gave demonstrations in draping the charter, presenting guests, balloting, presenting and retiring the flag.

Don Somers, Master of Oregon Trail grange, assisted in directing the marching, with Mrs. Ranes providing music. A question and answer period followed the instruction.

Fifty-six members from Oregon Trail, Vale, Ontario Heights, Oregon Slope and Boulevard granges attended the session. The various granges provided cookies, coffee and punch for the social hour prior to adjournment.

BRIDGE ACTIVITIES

Duplicate bridge winners for Jan. 22 regular play are announced by Mrs. Houston Wilson, hostess for the weekly parties.

First place honors went to Mrs. Ray Russell, with second place going to Ken Glore and third to Mary Sallee.

Next session will be regular play on Monday evening, Jan. 29 in the Wilson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arleigh L. Adams were host and hostess for a Jan. 21 evening of bridge. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Chester, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson. Gene Chester was high score winner.

Lady Eagles To Meet

An officers meeting of Eagle's Auxiliary # 2134 will be held at 8 p.m., Jan. 30 in the Nyssa FOE hall.

Amity Women Meet

Members of the Amity club, met Jan. 12 at the home of Mrs. Mark Moncur. Mrs. Taft Pett was co-hostess and also presented the program by telling of her trip to Hawaii and showing colored slides she had taken while there. Door prizes went to Mrs. Wilfred Peterson and Mrs. John Schenk.

HOMETOWN NEWS

W. K. 'Bill' Wahlert left Jan. 11 by plane to attend a business meeting in Chicago. On his return Jan. 15 he was met at Stapleton airport, at Denver, by his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul (Tone) Moses. It was Tone's birthday and they had a two hour visit before his West bound plane arrived.

Mrs. Norma Gifford and Mrs. Verda Steinke attended the funeral Jan. 9 of their dear friend, Belle Johns of Parma. Dean Steinke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darel Steinke of Vale and grandson of Mrs. Verda Steinke, had the pin removed from his ankle Jan. 16. He is doing fine and feeling better now that the pin has been removed.

Mrs. Lyda Kohl of McMinnville, Ore., a former Nyssa resident and co-owner of Brownie's cafe, was a recent visitor in the Treasure Valley area. While in Nyssa she was guest at a no-host luncheon at Brownie's cafe, with a card party following at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Long. The visitor was also a guest at the Rebekah Sunshine club meeting in the home of Mrs. Harry Kingrey, the Senior Citizens' club session Friday. Many other dinners and card parties were given in her honor.

While in Nyssa Mrs. Kohl stayed at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Butcher. Several days were spent with a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sears and family at Payette. She left Jan. 12 for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frost of Meridian, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schoen were Jan. 14 dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schoen of Nampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Moore of Nampa were Jan. 14 evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McConeill. They had dinner at the East Side cafe in Ontario.

Mrs. Pat Sweaney and boys of Caldwell were Jan. 14 dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. David Beers left Nov. 7 for Vancouver, Wash. to attend the funeral of V. Firestone, father of their son-in-law, Merrill Firestone. They stayed to have Thanksgiving with their daughter and Merrill, returning home Nov. 25. Two days after arriving home they received a call from Watsonville, Calif. Dave's mother, Tena Beers, had succumbed at the age of 91 years. After the funeral they stayed on until the Christmas holidays were over, returning home Dec. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane (Ruth) Buchtel and family were Jan. 14 dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Beers. The Tom Drydales and the James Malloys were guests at an oyster stew supper Jan. 19 at the Beers home.

Mrs. J. Elwood Flinders spent Jan. 14 through Jan. 18 visiting her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Saunders of Meridian. The Saunders have recently moved from Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Towne visited January 21 with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Towne and family at Eagle.

AREA SECRETARIES REPORT ACTIVITIES

Futura Chapter members recently marked their new calendars for two important chapter events, according to Mrs. Harry Rogers, publicity chairman of the local organization of The National Secretaries Association (International).

February 2 has been set as date for a social event, honoring the secretaries' bosses, the bosses' wives and the secretaries' husbands. Mrs. Del Wolfe, secretary to Mark McCarrroll of McCarrroll Insurance Agency in Payette, is chairman of the committee for a dinner party at Maudie's Cafe in Payette.

The NSA Program of the Year meeting, with Mmes. Dale Rainwater and Clarence E. Miller as co-chairmen, will be held February 15 at the Ontario Branch of the First National Bank of Oregon. This will be an evening dessert-meeting.

Regular session of Futura Chapter was held January 18, at the La Paloma restaurant in Ontario. Recently initiated new members were given their committee appointments at that time.

CLUB NEWS

Jack McKee and son, Rodney of The Dalles, Ore., arrived Jan. 21 to visit Jack's mother, Mrs. George McKee. Rodney returned home Monday and his father remained another day.

Mrs. Wyatt Smith is now home from St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise, where she recently underwent surgery. She is reported to be feeling fine and improving daily.

Mrs. Paul House of Quincy, Wash., arrived Jan. 22 to spend four days visiting her daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Marcum and family in Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnes and family at Vale. Paul House will be attending business meetings in Boise, while they are in the area.

Mrs. T. H. Eldredge spent Jan. 19 and 20 with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carpenter of Payette.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chard of Meridian visited January 20 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ewen Chard. Jan. 21 visitors were their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Whitman of Emmett.

Mrs. T. H. Eldredge spent Jan. 19 and 20 with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carpenter of Payette.

Mrs. T. H. Eldredge spent Jan. 19 and 20 with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carpenter of Payette.

AFS Ticket Sales Begin February 1

Seker-Bayrami, Turkish for Sugar Festival, will be celebrated in connection with Nyssa's American Field Service program. The annual AFS night, honoring this year's foreign exchange student Ulvi Unal from Turkey, is scheduled for Friday, February 9, at 8:00 p.m. in the cafeteria.

A Turkish national holiday, Seker-Bayrami is a festival of parades and feasts. Nyssa's celebration will feature a variety of Turkish foods and drinks, prepared under the direction of Mrs. Harriet Brumbach, Mrs. Mel Beck and Miss Pam Saito.

Tickets for the event go on sale Thursday, February 1. NHS students who sell a minimum of one adult and one student ticket will be admitted to a dance on Friday, February 9, at 2:00 p.m. Dance chairman Scott Jefferies promises a wide variety of music and entertainment. - NHS Bulldog Staff.

ARCADIA 4-H CLUB TO BE REORGANIZED

A reorganizational meeting of the Arcadia 4-H club will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 27 in the Dick Miller home. Club activities will include livestock, garden and leathercraft projects. Anyone interested is welcome to attend the meeting.

CHEERFUL HEALTHCLUB

Members of the Cheerful Health 4-H club in Mrs. Hazel Lane's room met January 9. Tom Church, president, called the meeting to order. We repeated the 4-H pledge and flag salute. Dean Sappe, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting, and for roll call we answered "yes" or "no" if we try to think of good posture.

The following reports were given: "What Causes Poor Posture" by Beth Kassman, "Keep Your Chin Up" by Tom Church, and "What You Can Do About It" by Dan Kane.

Our songleaders lead us in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "America." Frank Moore, game chairman showed us how to play "Buzz", a fun game.

President Church assigned Nancy Jeffers as game chairman for the next meeting. Debra Alexander, reporter.

Student Educators Visit Utah Schools

Ten student teachers at the College of Idaho in Caldwell are spending the week of Jan. 22-26 at Ogden, Utah, visiting schools which practice a number of innovative teaching methods.

The field trip is part of their specialized work during the winter session in a course in "Directed Observation." They are accompanied by two professors from the education department, Robert C. Wendt, acting department head, and Dr. Richard D. Van Pelt.

They are visiting schools with team teaching, educational television, modular scheduling and other types of classroom situations.

Among the students is Nyssan Ilea Hall, daughter of Mrs. Laurence L. Kreager of rte. 1, Nyssa.

Symptoms of Ulcers Are... STOMACH ULCERS DUE TO EXCESS ACID QUICK RELIEF OR NO COST

Ask About 15-Day Trial Offer!

Over five million packages of the WILLARD TREATMENT have been sold for relief of symptoms of distress arising from Stomach and Bowel Disorders due to Excess Acid - Poor Digestion, Sour or Upright Stomach, Gas, Heartburn, Bloating, etc., due to Excess Acid. Ask for "Willard's Message" which fully explains the home treatment - free - at

MICHAEL'S PHARMACY
NYSSA PHARMACY
NYSSA, OREGON

HEAD NURSE SPEAKS AT AUXILIARY MEET

A meeting of Malheur Memorial hospital auxiliary was held Jan. 21 at the hospital.

Mrs. Margaret Bennet, head nurse, told of items needed for the nursing home wing and mentioned articles which would be nice to have for the elderly patients.

Mrs. Ralph Lawrence was asked to continue purchasing items for the hospital gift shop.

CLOSE-OUT COMPLETE STOCK
... of ...
LADIES' WOOL SKIRTS

GROUP I
VALUES	NOW
$6.99-$8.99	$4.99
GROUP II
$9.99-$11.99	$6.99
GROUP III
$12.99-$15.99	$8.99

LADIES SHOES
Asst Styles - Sizes

VALUES	NOW
$7.99-$12.99	$3.99

Bracken's Dept. Store
In the Heart of Thunderegg Mall

ANNOUNCEMENT!
Ken Pfaff, M.D., Physician and Surgeon, Announces the Removal of His Office to 915 S.E. Third Ave., Ontario, Oregon. For the General Practice of Medicine And Surgery, Beginning February 1, 1968

OFFICE HOURS: 10 A.M. - 12 NOON AND 2 - 5 P.M. DAILY, EXCEPT TUESDAY AFTERNOON.
10 A.M. - 12 NOON SATURDAY.

Since the day we were born...

... 105 years ago, we've grown steadily - by providing a needed service to the people and industries of the 13 Western states we serve - until today we have over 32,000 loyal, energetic employees (many of them in Utah and Idaho) and a 2 billion dollar investment in properties, equipment and other assets.

We contribute mightily to the economy of the states we serve through huge payrolls (over $248,000,000 in 1966), large tax payments (over $71,000,000 in 1966), and vast annual expenditures for everything from computers to lubricants for train locomotives (over $207,000,000 for new equipment and improvements).

We pride ourselves on being good citizens and pledge our best efforts to continue to be an important factor in the growth and progress of the West.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

GATEWAY TO AND FROM THE BOOMING WEST
Shipper or traveler, we're here to serve you.