YOUTHFUL KEGLERS ADVANCE TO STATE

Four junior bowlers from Nyssa have qualified for the Oregon State Junior Bowling association tournament to be staged Feb. 24-25 and March 2-3 at Cascade Lanes in Portland.

The youthful keglers qualified at the Region 6 tourney staged Jan. 20-21 and Jan. 27-28 at Desert Lanes in Hermiston. Among those qualifying for the state event are Nyssans Billy Marcum and Hal Brendle in singles and doubles; Kevin Engstrom, singles; and Harry Brendle, doubles.
The regional tourney was under supervision of Nyssan Kay Brendle.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Marcum, Bill and Sara went to Hermiston during a recent weekend to visit her sister, Bonnie House. Bill participated in the regional bowling tournament and qualified for the state tourney in singles and doubles.

ONTARIO, JOHN DAY, BURNS DOWN NHS BASKETBALL LADS

The NHS Bulldogs suffered three hoop losses during the past week, as they were downed on the evening of Jan. 23 by the Tigers of Ontario, on Friday evening by the John Day Prospectors and on Saturday evening by the visiting hoopsters from Burns.

Even though Bulldog Dan Wilson was high man with 18 points in the Tuesday evening contest, the Ontario lads won the game by a 70-53 final tally to remain in contention for the SRV A-1 title.

Ontario jumped to an 11-9 first-quarter lead and continued to open the gap throughout the game. Mike Echanis paced the Tigers with 15 counters, followed by Gary McCarney with 14.

Mrs. Jerry Myrick and Vicki of Pendleton arrived Jan. 26 to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tensen and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myrick. They returned home Sunday.

Other Nyssa points were tossed into the circles by Gary Ross and Jim Beck, 8 each; Scott Jefferies and John Shell, 6 apiece; Colin Chester, 3; L. Wilson and Elguezabal, 2 each.

The Friday evening game, on the Bulldog's home court, ended with a 67-39 score for the Prospectors from John Day, as their teammate Dave Diecer tossed 26 counters into the rings.

Pacing the Nyssa five was Scott Jefferies with 13 points; followed by Shell, 11; Larry Wilson, 6; Jim Beck, 4; Craig Lewis, 3; Dan Wilson and Ross, 1 each.

Again on the Nyssa hardwood on Saturday evening, the NHS lads bowed to the hoopsters from Burns, by a 55-44 Oregon 7A-2 final score. The visiting team was paced by Revak, who sunk 18 points.

Bulldog counters were made by D. Wilson, 9; Ross and Jefferies, 8 each; L. Wilson, Shell and Chester, 6 apiece; Beck, 1.
