LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Feb. 5, 1968

Dear Editor:

I have always believed that we should have a "Do-It-Yourself-Citizensry and government pressures on all sides makes me feel that big government will soon tell me every move I can make.

President Johnson has said, "quote, "We are going to try to take all of the money that we think is unnecessarily being spent and take it from the "haves" and give it to the "have nots" that need it so much." End of quote (White House speech 1/15/64. I am a "have", I have eight children, I have taught them to love God, I have been hungry in a land of plenty, I have worn second hand clothes, I have obeyed the laws, I have paid taxes, I have loved my neighbor, I have lump and tears when Old Glory goes by, I have my freedom, I have made mistakes, But, I have woke up, I have begun to study, I have seen and felt my freedom slipping away, I have read magazines and newspapers, I have listened to T.V. and radio, I have read J. Edgar Hoover's "Masters of Deceit", Skousen's "The Naked Communism", Griffin's "The Fearful Master" etc., I have voted, I have campaigned, I have supported our police, I have chosen the good life, I have decided that I must now become "George", because every one knows that George can do it.

I am rich because I am a "have" not a "have not", I am now free, not a use to be. Lets get the Georges together and wake up the "have nots" that need what we have so much, before we are all "have nots" of tomorrow.

They that can give up liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety, Benjamin Franklin. Sincerely, Mrs. Joy Huffman.

TAP Exceeds $645 Goal; Dance Terminates Drive

"Happy Dippy Dance" with flashing lights was the hit of the grand finale of the Teenagers Against Polio Campaign. The "hippy" students of NHS gathered at the mod-decorated cafeteria, February 3, after the Emmett basketball game, and from their support, the TAP Campaign realized goal over $645.

Freshmen candidates, Remijito Sifuentes and Nancy Wilson were crowned with a wreath of flowers as King and Queen of the March of Dimes. Their class had the highest total of contributions with $150. The sophomore class held second place with $111.22. The junior and senior classes trailed behind with $5.16 and $1.50 respectively.

"Without the support of the club organizations, we would have never reached our goal," stated Marlene Bair, TAP chairman. Pop Club supported by contributing cakes for sales at noon and helping with the cake raffles at the basketball games. The Science Club and G.A.A. sponsored cake raffles at the games also. F.F.A. collected $60 from the Nyssa citizens donors.

F.H.A., along with Mrs. Virginia Steffens, adviser, contributed $20 to the campaign and are also sponsoring a cherry pie baking contest later in the month.

Nyssa Junior High also supported the TAP Campaign. Barbie Tensen, chairman, organized a slave auction similar to the high school's. This activity brought in more than $70 to raise the "thermometer" of TAP higher.

All the funds collected will be turned over to Mr. Andy Anderson, chairman of the March of Dimes in this area. - NHS Bulldog

The "Twice As" Game Applied To McCarthy

Back in 1960, when Senator Eugene McCarthy first fancied himself a national political figure, his chief rivals for the Democratic nomination were John F. Kennedy, Hubert Humphrey and Stuart Symington.

In the Senate cloakroom it has been recalled that McCarthy said in 1960 that he was twice as Catholic as Jack Kennedy, twice as liberal as Hubert Humphrey and twice as bright as Stuart Symington. That didn't make him very many friends in the Senate, and now the quote has been recalled by his colleagues who have made a game of adding to the list.

- Many of the additions are unprintable, it must be said, but here are a few of the "twice as" attributes ascribed to Senator McCarthy by his fellow Senators. He is, they say:
- Twice as long-winded as Senator Fulbright.
 - Twice as arrogant as Dr. Spock.
 - Twice as confused as Clifford Case.
 - Twice as ambitious as George Wallace.
 - Twice as boring as Ralph Yarborough.
 - Twice as manly as Margaret Chase Smith.
 - Twice as incorrigible as Wayne Morse.
 - Twice as opinionated as Jacob Javits.
 - Twice as brainwashed as George Romney.
 - Twice as dovish as Senator Church.
 - Twice as irrational as Stephen Young.
 - Twice as frivolous as Senator Percy.
 - Twice as hopeless as Harold Stassen.
 - Twice as dull as John Sparkman.
 - Twice as pro-Ho-Chi-minh as Staughton Lynd.
 - Twice as sure to be absent as Harrison Williams.
 - Twice as vain as Ernest Gruening.
- Well, that's the best of the printable ones that we've heard, except for one son who shall be nameless. He remarked: "Still, even with all those qualities, he is twice as popular as Bobby Kennedy."

FLB Speaker Sees Higher Interest Rate

Sometimes a person doesn't need to be out in the rain to be all wet.

These are factors over which we have no control. "I can assure you, however, that our decisions with respect to interest rates are going to be consistent with our objective," he said.

Also speaking during the meeting was Dan E. Roberts, manager of the local FLBA, who presented the financial report.

Harry M. Featherston of Vale was re-elected to serve a three-year term on the Board of Directors.
