Kathleen Pugh Graduates At WU With BA Degree

After three and one-half years of study, instead of the usual four years, Mrs. Kathleen (Kec) Pugh was graduated Jan. 17, 1968 from Willamette university in Salem, Ore., with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

She majored in mathematics, with a minor in elementary education and during her college career had an accumulative grade point average of 3.91 out of a possible 4.0.

While a freshman, Kathleen was selected for Alpha Lambda Delta, a women's honorary sorority and when a senior was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, a national education honorary. In 1966, she was honored with the T. C. Jory award, given annually to the outstanding upper division student enrolled in mathematics.

Mrs. Pugh is a member of the Willamette university choir and is among the Willamette Singers. She also served as secretary and song leader for her dormitory.

Kathleen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Keck of the Nu Acres area, and was graduated as valedictorian of her class in 1953 from Fruitland high school.

Her husband, Clarence Pugh, teaches vocal and instrumental music in the Harrisburg, Ore., schools. The couple has one daughter, Rebecca.

Mrs. Pugh's parents, the Sherman Kecks, were among those witnessing the Jan. 17 graduation rites at Willamette university.
