WATER, PREY, AND GAME BIRDS-OF NORTH AMERICA by National Geographic Society. This series has beautiful natural-colored photographs.

GREAT ADVENTURES by National Geographic. Exploring land, sea, and sky.

AMERICA'S HISTORYLANDS by National Geographic. Landmarks of liberty -- Carl Sandburg said "There has never been a book like it. It is gorgeous and richly educational with color photographs having historical value."

The National Geographic Society presents a salty literary feast in MEN SHIPS AND THE SEA.

WILD ANIMALS OF NORTH AMERICA, also by National Geographic Society. The largest creature ever to inhabit the earth is the blue whale. The smallest known mammal is the shrew. This is really a fascinating book.

THE UNITED STATES IN WORLD AFFAIRS 1966 by Richard P. Stebbins. This volume provides the student or researcher with as useful, readable, and dispassionate analysis of recent developments in American foreign relations as he is likely to find.

THE LIFE THAT LATE HE LED by George Eells. A biography of Cole Porter. The composer who created "Begin the Begone," "Night and Day".

UFOs & IFOS, factual report on flying saucers by Gardner Soule.

ABC'S OF SHORT-WAVE LISTENING by Len Buckwalter. The key to this wonderful new world is yours for the asking--just some modest equipment and the desire to discover the world from the comfort of your own home.

THE COMMON SENSE BOOK OF BABY AND CHILDCARE by Dr. Benjamin Spock. The new revised and enlarged edition of his famous book.

THE WALL BETWEEN by Annie Samuelli. In this book, Annie Samuelli writes of those nearly twelve years of imprisonment with great sensitivity and a remarkable lack of bitterness. Here is an authentic, graphic record of one woman's odyssey in the shadow world of the Iron Curtain prisons.

HOW TO HAVE MODEL BEAUTY POISE & PERSONALITY by John Robert Powers. Tested methods the models use, by the world's most famous expert on feminine appearance.

THE AMERICAN HERITAGE HISTORY OF COLONIAL ANTIQUES. This is the most comprehensive authoritative, and generously illustrated volume yet published on the emergence of the decorative styles we call "early American."

AUTHENTIC SOURDOUGH COOKERY by Sourdough 'Jack' Mabee.

THE GRANGE 1866-1967. First Century of Service and Evolution.

DAYS AND CUSTOMS OF ALL FAITHS by The Reverend Howard V. Harper, D.D. This book cannot fail to provide the reader with a better understanding of religious thought as a whole, no matter what his or her faith may be.

SONGS OF THE GREAT AMERICAN WEST is a fascinating, highly authoritative and colorful documentary of the pioneering spirit as it expressed itself.

AMERICA'S CONCENTRATION CAMPS by Allan R. Bosworth. The shocking story of 110,000 Americans behind barbed wire in the United States during World War II.

PROJECT SEALAB by Terry Shannon & Charles Payzant. The story of the United States Navy's man-in-the-sea program.

VIET CONG by Douglas Pike. In publishing this study the Center for International Studies hopes to contribute to greater understanding of specific problems currently being faced in Vietnam.

THE AMERICAN JOURNALISM OF MARX & ENGELS by Friedrich Engels. A fascinating part of journalistic history.

ABUSE OF POWER by Theodore Draper. The author contends that the Vietnamese war can be understood only by viewing it as a whole and by relating it to similar actions elsewhere.

BY-LINE; ERNEST HEMINGWAY. Newspaper and magazine stories written by the famous author.

THE QUEST by Tom Allen. A report on extraterrestrial life.

MYSTERIOUS FIRES AND LIGHTS by Vincent H. Gaddis. Mountains that blaze, fireballs, flying saucers and fire falls, the amazing antics of globular lightning.

BIGGER THAN A BREADBOX by Steve Allen. Full of the unique wit of Steve Allen.

NYSSA PHYSICIAN ATTENDS MEETING

Dr. K. A. Danford, Nyssa physician, was among those who attended the Oregon Academy of General Practice Symposium held Feb. 9 at the Sheraton Motor Inn in Portland.

Four nationally-known medical authorities presented data on various sexual problems as they relate to overall patient care in a scientific symposium on "Human Sexual Behavior."

The all-day session presented under a grant from Lederle Laboratories was part of the Oregon Academy's program of post-graduate study.

Experts from the fields of psychiatry, obstetrics and gynecology made two presentations, each dealing with a different aspect.

Dr. Alfred Auerback, associate clinical professor of psychiatry, University of California School of Medicine, San Francisco reported that studies indicate early experiences, particularly at critical periods, shape the nature of psychosexual development.

In particular, family relationships during the child's formative years play key roles in shaping his personality and sexual aims.

We'll do the Fertilizing

It's our specialty

Yes, United States Steel Farm Service Centers will help you do your farm work this year. All you have to do is the plowing, harrowing, seedbed preparation, planting, irrigating and harvesting -- to mention a few.

What does your USS Farm Service Center do to help? We'll do the fertilizing because that's what we do best. We have the finest equipment available -- bulk spreader trucks with flotation tires, bulk mixing units that can blend anything in minutes, bulk bins, pull spreaders, and the latest and most complete anhydrous ammonia application facilities.

And this year we have the finest in farm chemicals -- herbicides, insecticides, fumigants -- available. This additional service becomes a part of the "Program That Pays" that growers follow each year to achieve maximum yields and profit from their farming operation. Yes, we'll help you with your farm work by doing all your fertilizing. And if fertilizing seems to be a small part of your workload it's because you've got so much more to do -- and that's a good reason for letting us help. After all, you've still got to do the plowing, harrowing, seedbed preparation, planting, irrigating and harvesting -- just to mention a few. We'll help!
