

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS J. CALVIN

Red and white were the colors chosen by Karen Saunders as she was given in marriage by her father to Thomas Calvin on Dec. 29, 1967 at the Central Assembly of God church in Boise.

The Revs. R. H. Buck and Winston R. Ketchum, uncle of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony performed in the presence of 250 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Saunders of route 2, Parma; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Calvin of Boise.

The bride was attired in a gown of slipper-satin, with embroidered flowers, and trimmed with pearls and sequins. Her train was attached to bows at the shoulder line. Her short veil was held by a pearl tiara, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and red roses.

The church was decorated with red feather poinsettias, white pom-poms and greenery, arranged at the base of circular candelabra.

Dresses of the woman attendants were floor-length, red velvet and were of the same design as the bride's gown. Each wore white elbow-length gloves and carried a single white rose. Red velvet bows on their frocks and velvet bows in their hair were decorated with rhinestones.

Matron of honor was Judy McNett, while bridesmaids were Anita Kellogg and Sharon White. Flower Girl Mary Lou Sheppard also wore a long red velvet dress and white gloves. Ringbearer was Douglas Shepard, with Ruth Kellogg and Steven Wingett serving as candlelighters.

Nate Calvin served as best man for his brother, with the bridegroom's other attendants being David Saunders, brother of the bride, and Alan White. Head ushers were Dave Williams and Don Fee, assisted by Jay Rossum and Curtis Oliver.

Organist was Kenneth E. Saunders, brother of the bride, who accompanied Dan and Teryl Ketchum as they sang, "O Perfect Love" and "We'll Walk With God". David Saunders sang "The Wedding Prayer".

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Saunders chose a pink three-piece knit suit and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a three-piece ensemble of white, with silver threads. They each wore a corsage of red carnations.

Among special guests were the couple's grandparents, Mr.

Grangers Attend Lecturers' Banquet - Meeting In Ontario

Over 100 grange members and friends attended the Malheur County Grange lecturers' banquet and program held Saturday evening, March 2 at the Moore hotel in Ontario.

Malheur granges represented were Oregon Trail, Boulevard, Vale, Big Bend, Willow Creek, El Dorado, Oregon Slope, Ontario Heights and Pomona #33. Visitors represented granges from Harney, Baker, Linn and Lane counties.

State Grange Master Allen P. Wheeler was guest speaker and stressed the value of old-fashioned virtues such as self-discipline, self-direction, initiative and the courage to THINK for oneself.

Program selections offered by lecturers included Lois Boenig, Oregon Trail, vocal solo by Linda Ballou; Betty Collier, Ontario Heights, "The Hypnotic Carpet"; Phoebe Red-sull, El Dorado, guitar and vocal numbers; Angie Chaney, Big Bend, "The Influence of Alcohol"; Francis Brown, Oregon Slope, "Putting Junior to Bed"; Mabel Beam, Vale, "The Fisherman"; Jancye Chamberlin, Boulevard, "The Champion Spitter." Those attending responded with a great deal of applause and laughter.

Pomona Lecturer Ellen Jones announced that winners of the 1967 contest were Boulevard, first place; with Big Bend, second for the $10 and $5 awards. The $1 award went to Mrs. Mabel Beam of Vale for the lecturers' most complete report.

Pomona Home Economics and Mrs. J. A. Kellogg of Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gray from California.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church recreation room, decorated with red feather poinsettias. Mrs. R. A. Kellogg and Mrs. Winston Ketchum, aunts of the bride, served the wedding cake. Merle Saunders, the bride's brother, was in charge of the groom's cake, wrapped in red foil and attached to a holly wreath, trimmed with a red velvet ribbon. Mrs. Jerry Tibbets served coffee, with Miss Claudia Locklear serving punch.

Gift carriers were Verle Ketchum and Larry Saunders, brother of the bride. Karen Friesen, Susan Hamon and Dorothy Caldwell were in charge of the kitchen. Reception music was provided by David Saunders on the saxophone, accompanied by Kenneth E. Saunders at the organ. Mrs. Barbara Williams and Miss Gloria Locklear registered the guests.

After a brief honeymoon trip to Sun Valley, the newlyweds are now residing at 2211 Dorian in Boise where the new Mrs. Calvin is teaching third grade at Garfield school and her husband is employed by Gem State Dental Supply.

Chairman Myra Atherton reported on work done by the various granges and awarded a $1 prize to Mrs. Effie Standage of the Vale grange for the most complete HEC report.

State Deputy Robert Coble reviewed progress made by the grange in 1967. He stated that there had been a net gain in membership of 694 in the state.

Mrs. Esther Stephen was in charge of the lucky number drawing. She and her assistants, Orland Cheldelin, Mrs. Ernie Metcalf, Mrs. Don Somers and Mrs. Ira Price distributed 17 gifts.

The meeting was closed with a song by State Master Allen P. Wheeler, accompanied by Mrs. Ellen Jones at the piano.

Prior to the meeting, the grangers viewed many interesting pictures and hobby items displayed by the various units represented.

Miss Wilson Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and daughter, Linda visited during a recent weekend with the latter's fiancé, Ray Erland in Ashland, Ore. Other weekend visitors there were Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erland of Aurora, Ore.

Miss Wilson was also honored with a surprise party given by her dormitory friends at Southern Oregon college in Ashland.

Great news! Now you can buy life insurance from your favorite local fire and casualty agents.

What are we doing selling life insurance? It's as simple as this: we figure if we do, both of us will gain. We, from the increased business, you, because now you'll be able to fill all your insurance needs by dealing with one agent. Is that good? Sure it is. When you deal with one agent who knows you, he can usually better advise you as your insurance needs change. You gain convenience, too. And often, you save cash. If you need life insurance — or any other kind — give us a call. We'll be happy to discuss all your insurance needs. Anytime.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE WINNERS

Duplicate bridge winners for March 4 regular play, are announced by Mrs. Houston Wilson, hostess for the weekly parties.

First place honors went to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Michael. Second place went to Mrs. Houston Wilson and Bruce Hauser. Third place was taken by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gloré.

There is a change in the play night. The next session will be master point play Sunday, March 10 at the Houston Wilson home.

MAKE FLOWERS

Past presidents of the American Legion Auxiliary met Mar. 4 at the home of Mrs. Angie Cook. Mrs. Ellen Richardson was co-hostess. The afternoon was spent making flowers for the Portland Veterans hospital patients so they can decorate their wheel chairs for the late spring.

Community Concert Patrons To Hear Renowned Orchestra

RENATO RUOTOLO
Famed Director
Community Concert patrons of the area will hear the celebrated Orchestra San Pietro of Naples at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, March 10 in the Ontario high school auditorium.

The Orchestra San Pietro was claimed a success right from the beginning. It's first concerts were given in its home city of Naples where the critics praised it for beauty of tone, superb expressivity and perfect sense of ensemble.

It now returns for a fifth coast-to-coast tour of the United States and Canada.

A large measure of this success is attributed to Renato Ruotolo, founder and musical director of the Orchestra San Pietro. He is an accomplished violinist, dedicated student and teacher of the chamber repertoire. Ruotolo embarked on a career as conductor and was soon considered one of the great talents of Italy in this exacting field of musical activity.

Concert patrons are invited to attend a Sunday afternoon reception to meet members of the renowned orchestra. A table, in the foyer of the auditorium, will accommodate membership renewals one-half hour before and one-half hour after the concert. Mailed renewals may be sent to Community Concert Association, Box 697, Ontario, Ore., 97914.

St. Patrick's Dance

The second annual St. Patrick's Day dance sponsored by the members of St. Bridget's Altar society, will be held Saturday, March 16, at the Catholic parish hall, 504 Locust Ave. The 'Versatiles' will furnish live music.

Chairmen working to make this an outstanding event are Mesdames Art Bosselman, Charles Quinowski and John Studer. Tickets are available on a limited basis and may be obtained from church members.

For information and tickets call 372-3909. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

Admission fee includes a mid-night buffet supper.

NOTICE OF SCHOOL BUDGET HEARING

NOTICE is hereby given that a meeting of the governing body of ADRIAN SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 61 of Malheur County, State of Oregon, will be held at Adrian, Oregon on the 19th day of March, 1968, at 8 p. m. o'clock for the purpose of discussing with interested persons the budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1968, and ending June 30, 1969, hereinafter set forth.

The budget was prepared on a basis of accounting consistent with that used in the preceding year. Major accounting changes, if any, and their effect on the budget are set forth in an accompanying statement.

A copy of the budget document is available for inspection at Brown's Insurance Agency in Adrian between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. The budget document may be obtained free of charge.
