

MR. AND MRS. DWAIN DEINES

Miss Lana Eileen Mower and Mr. Dwain Deines were united in marriage at 8 o'clock on Dec. 9, 1967 at the Parma LDS church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Olen Mower of Parma and Mrs. Edna Deines of Weiser.

The double-ring rites were performed by Bishop Louis Phillips in the presence of 200 guests.

Red poinsettias and flocked evergreen provided the setting and vocalists were Mrs. Dean Bake and Mrs. Don Bates. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of satin and lace. She carried a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums and red carnations.

Attending her sister was Marna Lee Vickers, with another sister, Michelle Mower; Veneta Hansen and Carol Johnson as bridesmaids. They were attired in dresses of green satin and car-

JOB'S DAUGHTERS SCHEDULE PROJECTS

Job's Daughters of Bethel 33 met in regular session March 7 at the Masonic hall, with honored queen Christy Nelson presiding.

Senior Princess JoAnn Timmerman announced that her project will be a rummage sale sometime in April. The Jobies will hold an Easter Lily sale April 5-6, with proceeds going to the crippled children's fund. It was also agreed to help with the covering of chairs for the hall. The librarian's report was entitled, "The Master's Bouquet".

Susan Kouns was chosen as 'Jobie of the Meeting' and was presented the bracelet.

ried large white mums, tinted with red.

Kathy Smith, niece of the groom wore a dress matching those of other lady attendants and attended as flower girl.

Ronny Rolands served as best man, with Jim Haun, Dick Reidner and Dennis Barton as ushers. Ring bearer was Nathan Mower, a nephew of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mower was attired in a dress of blue brocade, with a corsage of red and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a knit ensemble of rose hue and a corsage of red carnations.

A three-tier cake, trimmed with roses, graced the refreshment table at a reception which followed the ceremony. Assisting with serving were Mrs. Lorin Goates, Mrs. Louis Mikesell, Sue Wagstaff, Renee Jimmett and Mary Ann Bake. Mrs. Monty Burbank registered the guests; and gifts were cared for by Toni Anderson, Jolene Price and Linda Bower.

Among out-of-area guests present for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, of Sumner Lake, Oregon.

The new Mrs. Deines was graduated from Parma high school and is presently working at the Dessert Seed Company plant in Nyssa.

Her husband is a graduate of Weiser high school and Boise college.

Following a wedding trip into Wyoming, the newlyweds began making their home on Oregon Slope, on the Oregon side of the Snake river near Weiser.

CARMA BLANCH

Announcement of her engagement to Terrell K. McDermott is made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Blanch of rural Nyssa. Carma's fiancé is a son of Mrs. Chrisilla Taylor of route 1, Pasco, Wash., and the late Alvin McDermott. The bride-elect was graduated in 1966 from Adrian high school and is presently attending Rick's college at Rexburg, Idaho. The future bridegroom is a 1964 graduate of Marsing high school, served a two-year central states mission for the LDS church and is currently studying at Rick's college where he is a pre-med major. The couple plans a spring wedding in the Idaho Falls temple.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

Duplicate bridge winners for March 10 master-point play are announced by Mrs. Houston Wilson, hostess for the weekly parties.

First-place honors went to Maryann Beck and Bruce Hauser. Second place winners were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Michael. Third place was taken by Dr. and Mrs. K. A. Danford, with fourth place going to Ann Halberg and Myrtle Rasmussen.

Next session will be the spring party and will be March 17 in the Wilson home.

Amity Women Elect Officers At Banquet

Amity club women held their annual banquet, March 8 at East Side cafe in Ontario.

Election of officers was held with Mrs. George (Mavis) Carter chosen as president; Mrs. Mel (Ruth) Beck, first-vice president; Mrs. W. O. (Helen) Peterson, second-vice president; Mrs. Snoden (Lavin) Roberts, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Jay (Alta) Gibson, reporter.

Date of the next meeting will be announced later.

GRANGE ACTIVITIES

PARRS SHOW SLIDES

Approximately 65 Oregon Trail Grangers and friends met March 7 at the grange hall for a social evening instead of the usual business meeting.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parr, who showed slides and told of their recent trip through the Netherlands and France.

A potluck dinner was served prior to the meeting.

Next regular session will be March 21, and all grange members are urged to attend.

HOME EC GROUP MEETS

Members of the Home Economics club of Oregon Trail grange met March 5 at the home of Mrs. Frank Holub. Twelve women answered roll call by telling of plans for their summer vacations.

Plans were completed for the luncheon to be served at the Pomona Home Economics conference. Mrs. Wilbur Atherton, Pomona Home Economics chairman, announced that the meeting will begin at 10 a. m. Tuesday, March 19 at Oregon Trail hall. Mrs. Delpha Jones of Lexington, Ore., will conduct the business session. All grange women are invited to attend.

Mrs. Wilbur Chapin and Mrs. Glenn Teague were guests at the March 5 meeting. Refreshments were served by Co-hostess Mrs. James Stephen.

Next meeting will be April 2 at the home of Mrs. Tom Drydale, with Mrs. William Smiley as assisting hostess.

PINOCHLE PARTY

The March 9 pinochle party, sponsored by members of the Rebekah lodge, was well attended at the IOOF hall in Nyssa. High score awards went to Orma Cleaver and Winnie Unwin, with second high taken by Babe Richardson and Bill Schoen. Traveling prizes went to Lula Lattig and Ethel Cleaver.

Hostesses for the evening were Wilma Ostrom and Kay Wheeler. Next party will be at 8 p.m., Saturday, March 23 at the Odd Fellows' hall.

Feted With Shower

Miss Linda Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, was guest of honor at a March 8 miscellaneous kitchen shower in the home of Mrs. Arleigh Adams.

Linda is the bride-elect of Ray Erland of Ashland, Ore.

SATURDAY DANCE

A public dance will be held Saturday, March 16 at the Oregon Trail hall, five miles southwest of Nyssa on highway 201. Dancing to live music will begin at 9:30 p.m. The affair is being sponsored by the members of the Owyhee Riding club. A midnight supper will be served.

GEM CLUB MEETING

Members of the Treasure Valley Rock and Gem club will hold their regular meeting Friday, March 15 at 8 p.m. in the Christian church. The program will be presented by the ABC's. Anyone interested in rock collecting and various other hobbies are welcome.

MR. AND MRS. GARTH OLSEN

They were united in marriage on Dec. 14, 1967 in the LDS temple at Idaho Falls. Mrs. Olsen is the former Kay Rydahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rydahl of Rexburg, Idaho. After a short honeymoon trip, an open house reception was held Dec. 24 in their honor at the home of the bride's parents, with 350 relatives and friends attending. A reception was also held on Dec. 27 at the parental Olsen home near Nyssa where 200 friends called to wish the newlyweds happiness. The couple is now at home in Rexburg where the bridegroom is a professor of languages at Rick's college.
