SHALL WE TURN OUR BACKS ON PROVEN COMMON SENSE

We pamper criminals and hamper police, when the police are all that save us from anarchy.

We spend billions to pay people not to work -- when we need the workers, and haven't got the billions.

Devoted men in uniform spend their lives, underpaid and in jeopardy, fighting to keep our nation safe. Then, for political advantage, we sweep aside their gravest advice.

Companies which provide millions of the best-paying jobs in the world were built out of profits made by ambitious men who plowed those profits back, to make more. Now Government and unions call such men selfish, and tax and destroy the profits vital to tomorrow's jobs.

We spend billions to get to the moon, for some ridiculous "prestige", instead of using those billions to reduce our debt and make us safe and solvent again.

For voters at home we placate our enemies abroad and attack our friends (and how we need those friends!).

We concentrate more and more power in a central government (too often of little people) and so weaken the local governments -- which are the very essence of democracy and freedom.

We spend billions for foreign aid and let prosperous foreigners who owe us billions spend our money to deprive us of our dangerously-needed gold.

Common sense used to be the outstanding trait of Americans. In Heaven's name, what has happened to it? (From a Warner and Swasey ad in U.S. News and World Reports.)
