MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND M. ERLAND

Saint Patrick's Day, March 17, 1968, was the day Linda Marie Wilson became the bride of Raymond M. Erland, in an afternoon ceremony at Nyssa Methodist church. The double-ring rite was performed by the Rev. Ralph A. Lawrence. Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Wilson of Nyssa are parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is a son of Mayor and Mrs. Walter Erland of Aurora, Ore.

Miss Wilson was attired in a gown of silk organza, enhanced with floral baroque embroidery and wide chapel train. Her hand-rolled veil of illusion billowed from a crown of tulle and lily of the valley. Her bridal bouquet was of lavish cascade design of stephanotis and cymbidium orchids, filled with white daisy mums and accented with dark-green ivy. Mint green floor-length cage gowns of taffeta and Venice lace, with matching head bows, were worn by the attendants, including the bride's sisters, Mrs. Richard Martin of Baker, as matron of honor and Miss Marilee Wilson of Nyssa, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Marilyn Lewis of Nyssa and Candice Clochetti of Cottage Grove, Ore. They carried cascading bouquets of white daisy mums, tapered with clusters of satin ribbon in shades of green to complement their gowns.

The Misses Stephanie Wilson and Marcia Wyckoff, cousins of the bride, served as candle-lighters during the wedding rites. They wore matching gowns of Kelly-Green, with wristlet corsages of daisy mums.

Robert Erland of Boise served as best man and the guests were seated by Gene Erland of Milwaukie, Harold Erland of St. Helens and David Wilson of Nyssa. All are brothers of the bride and groom.

Music for the ceremony included vocal selections, "Because" and "Wedding Prayer" by Earnie Lewis of Adrian. He was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff of Weiser.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson was attired in a dress and coat of champagne beige shantung, with a matching Venice-lace border. The
