

RECEIVING THE EMBLEM CLUB 192 scholarship award is Phil Mendiguren, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mendiguren of Ontario. Presenting the award is Junior Past President Evelyn Shaw.

It's Your Law!

WEAPONS

The United States Constitution prohibits our state and federal governments from infringing on the rights of the people to keep and bear arms.

The legislatures and Congress can, however, regulate the use of guns and weapons where necessary for the public welfare.

The constitutional guarantee does not permit one to wield arms to annoy, terrorize, or endanger citizens.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

Oregon statutes prohibit, among other things, the carrying of concealed weapons, on the persons or in automobiles, and the firing of guns and pistols on or across any public highway or railway.

KINGMAN KOLONY NEWS

BY DALE WITT PHONE 372-2183

KINGMAN KOLONY - Dean Talbot spent the weekend at the Earl Kygar home. Mrs. Kygar accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Culbertson to Star, Idaho, where she visited a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Mearl McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Phifer and Jan accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowers spent April 21 visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phifer and family at La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bowers were April 25 evening visitors in the Charles Bowers home. Mmes. Jim Phifer and Dale Ashcraft were among women attending the April 26 district garden club meeting at Vale.

Mrs. Bill Toomb was an April 28 dinner guest in the Jim Phifer home. Mrs. Toomb accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Piercy to visit in the Thurman Piercy home in the afternoon.

Roy Spencer was honored with a birthday party Saturday. He became six years old. Mrs. Virgil Viers served ice cream and cake, and Roy received many nice gifts. Mrs. Jack Glaze was among guests.

Mid-week visitors in the Virgil Viers home were Mr. and Mrs. Art Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Conant and Joan Viers of Nampa. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Patterson were Sunday afternoon visitors in the Viers home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calhoun of Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hinkle of Parma were April 28 dinner guests in the Myron Osborn home.

Jay Kygar was an April 27 overnight guest of Jimmie Conant. Doug Conant of Nampa spent the following afternoon with Jimmie.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schafer were April 27 dinner and afternoon guests of his niece, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marshall. Schafer's sister, Mrs. Aaron Wimpy of Los Angeles had just arrived and accompanied the Schafers home. The trio took a trip to Juntura on April 28.

Friday visitors in the Al Thompson home were Mrs. Harry Kingrey and Mrs. C. A. Wernick of Nyssa; Edna Mills of the Owyhee area, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fleming of Wilder.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Thompson were April 28 dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long at Ontario. In the afternoon the foursome visited Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hurst, former Kingman Kolony residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Walters

CLUB NEWS

LEATHERCRAFT CLUB

Members of the Arcadia 4-H Leathercraft club held their regular monthly meeting on the evening of April 27 at the Dick Miller home.

ARCADIA CLUB

Arcadia 4-H club members met in regular session on the evening of April 29 in the Harold Kurtz home.

MERRY MIXERS

Seven members of the Merry Mixers 4-H club met April 23. Sherri Price demonstrated making Brownies with a packaged mix, and Beth Zeugar demonstrated making them by the standard method.

Next meeting will be May 7. - Lynne Wittly, reporter.

PERSONALS

Mrs. T. H. Eldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carpenter and Charles of Payette drove to Lebanon, April 13 to spend the Easter weekend with their niece, Mr. and Mrs. Don Holmes. Relatives from Corvallis, Ore.; Seattle and Camas, Wash., were present for the Easter dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Edwards helped Mr. and Mrs. Babe Rife celebrate their 46 wedding anniversary by taking ice cream and cake to the home of the long-wedded couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene McConnell of Wilder were Easter Sunday dinner guests in the Edwards' home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Cheldelin were April 11 dinner guests of Mrs. Orma Cleaver. The latter was an April 13 houseguest of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cleaver. At the Easter Sunday dinner, another guest was Karen Cannon.

APPLE VALLEY ITEMS

BY FRANCES SMALLEY

APPLE VALLEY - On the evening of April 16, an estimated 200 friends and relatives gave Tom Ferguson a surprise 'retirement party', sponsored by Apple Valley PTA. A program of musical numbers, readings and skits was given by local talent, after which PTA officials presented the honoree with a complete assortment of fishing equipment and wished him many happy hours while using it. Refreshments and visiting completed the evening's activities. Ferguson has been custodian at the Apple Valley school for the past 35 years.

Mrs. Ed Sells visited on the afternoon of April 28 with Elsie Robinson.

Dwight Mason, Jill and Jan drove to Klamath Falls April 27 to visit with their sons and brothers, Marc and Dean who are studying at Oregon Technical Institute. Mrs. Mason, who was attending the Oregon state bowling tournament there, returned home the following Monday with her husband and daughters.

Will Webb and Jerry Miller of Union were April 26 evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dibble.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Saunders; their three sons and Ron Glaze were April 27 guests in the Tom Calvin home at Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Whitton of Boise were April 27 visitors in the Jim Correll home. Mrs. Jack Reed and Robert were April 28 afternoon visitors.

Members of the Parma Seed bowling team participated in the April 26-28 session of the Oregon state bowling tournament staged in Klamath Falls. Women comprising the team are Naomi Fritts, Addie Vinsonhaler, Jerry Uranga, Dorothy Mason and Bonnie Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Griffin were April 28 afternoon visitors in the George Griffin home. Helen Wilson and Irma Myers attended the annual meeting of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service held early last week in Pocatello. They were April 23 overnight guests of Former Nyssans, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ludlow at Burley. Mike and Jay Nichols spent last weekend with Mark and Jeffrey Smalley at Ontario. Mrs. Fay Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Olsen attended the April 26-28 Region 4 meeting of the Eagles Auxiliary in Pendleton. They were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ennor.

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. Elwood Flinders left April 17 for Boise to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Lorin Saunders and family, while Saunders made a business trip to Las Vegas, Nev. While she was in the Idaho capital city Mrs. Flinders' brother, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Child, Karen and Neil of Provo, Utah, arrived to attend funeral services for Mrs. Child's father, Junius E. Christensen, who succumbed April 18. Mrs. Flinders returned home April 21.

McKesson 2 for 1 Sale. 140 ITEMS ON SALE... APRIL 25 THRU MAY 4. Includes sections for Hosiery, Hair Spray, Cotton Balls, Toothpaste, Room Deodorant, Mini Bank, Aspirin Twins, Billfolds, Gold Earrings, Special Values, Lipsticks, Surprise Buys, Bexel MP, McKesson Toiletries, Tartan, Deodorant Cream, Kessadrox Suspension, and Pearl Necklace.

LOOKING FOR FARM CHEMICALS? YOU'LL FIND THEM AT FARMERS SUPPLY COOP. Ontario • 889-5365. PHUUCERS SUPPLY COOP. Nampa • 466-7841.

WE'RE CLOSED SATURDAY P.M.S. Farmers Feed & Seed NYSSA, OREGON. 202 Main Street Nyssa, Oregon Dial 372-3347

Michael's PHARMACY. Prescriptions, Cosmetics, Photo Finishing, Sundry Gifts, Veterinary Supplies.