

MRS. CARL LEE (JINNY) HILL (on left), assisted by Mrs. Hudson (Arlene) Robb, opens an account for the 'Owyhee Cemetery Memorial Fund' at the Nyssa branch of The First National Bank of Oregon. Mrs. Hill, President of Owyhee Garden club, said the account is being established so that interested patrons may take or send their memorial contributions directly to the bank for deposit. The funds are being used for a cemetery beautification project, sponsored by the Garden club and in full agreement with the cemetery board of directors. A memorial center, containing a plaque, is already completed and the group is now working on entrance corner posts. All units are being constructed with Arizona stone. Mrs. Ira (Clara) Price was president of the garden club when the beautification project was started. - Journal photo.

Differences Between Democrats, Republicans

(Editors Note: This essay on the difference between Republicans and Democrats, reprinted from a Mid-western newspaper, whose editor said it was "mysteriously laid on his desk" without a signature. But, rather than "toss it away", he passed it on to his readers for their enjoyment. Figuring our readers would enjoy it as well we are passing it along here-with).

Although to the casual, Republicans and Democrats may appear to be almost indistinguishable here are some hints which should result in positive identification.

Democrats seldom make good polo players. They would rather listen to Bela Bartok.

The people you see coming out of white wooden churches are Republicans.

Democrats buy most of the books that have been banned some where. Republicans form censorship committees and read them as a group.

Republicans are likely to have fewer, but larger debts that cause them no concern.

Democrats owe a lot of small bills. They don't worry either.

Republicans consume three-fourths of all the rutabaga produced in this country. The remainder is thrown out.

Republicans usually wear hats and almost always clean their paint brushes.

Democrats give their worn out clothes to those less fortunate.

Republicans wear theirs.

Republicans post all the signs saying NO TRESPASSING and DEER ARE PRIVATE PROPERTY and so on. Democrats bring picnic baskets and start bonfires with the signs.

Republicans employ exterminators. Democrats step on bugs.

Republicans have governesses for their children. Democrats have grandmothers.

Democrats name their children after currently popular sports figures, politicians and entertainers. Republican children are named after their parents or grandparents, according to where the most money is.

Large cities such as New York are filled with Republicans -- up until 5 p.m. At this point there is a phenomenon much like an automatic washer starting the spin cycle. People begin pouring out of every exit of the city. These are the Republicans going home.

Democrats keep trying to cut down on smoking, but are not successful. Neither are Republicans. Republicans tend to keep their shades drawn, although there is seldom any reason why they should. Democrats ought to but don't.

Republicans fish from the stern of a chartered boat. Democrats sit on the deck and let the fish come to them.

Republicans study the financial pages of the newspaper.

Democrats put them in the bottom of the bird cage.

Most of the stuff you see alongside the road has been thrown out of car windows by Democrats.

On Saturday, Republicans head for the hunting lodge of the yacht club. Democrats wash the car and get a haircut. Republicans raise dahlias, Dalmations and eyebrows. Democrats raise Airedales, kids and taxes.

Democrats eat the fish they catch. Republicans hang them on the wall.

Democrats watch TV crime and western shows that make them clench their fists and become red in the face. Republicans get the same effect from the Presidential press conferences.

Christmas cards that Democrats send are filled with reindeer and chimneys and long messages. Republicans select cards containing a spray of holly, or a single candle.

Democrats are continually saying, "This Christmas we're going to be sensible." Republicans consider this unlikely.

Republicans smoke cigars on weekdays.

Republicans have guest rooms. Democrats have spare rooms filled with old baby furniture.

Republican boys date Democratic girls. They plan to marry Republican girls, but feel they're entitled to a little fun first.

Democrats make up plans and then go do something else. Republicans follow the plans their grandfathers made.

Democrats purchase all the tools -- the power saws and
