Women Answer Roll

Two other members recalled when friends pulled the choke instead of the airvent control on their autos. Another member tried to stomp out a cigarette that a hired man had dropped in slightly frozen barnyard mire.

One absent minded member cut a live electric wire with the scissors, and another found herself in church with her bedroom slippers on.

The member who should have won a prize, however, is the shopper who sat down to rest on a bathroom "facility" on display in a store.

Mrs. Frank Holub was appointed to buy a plant for Mother's Day for patients in the nursing home wing at Malheur Memorial hospital.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Parr, co-hostess. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Orland Cheldelin, with Mrs. Don Somers assisting hostess.
