

MR. AND MRS. WALTER KNUTESON

On June 1, 1968, Marilyn Stephen was given in marriage by her father to Walt Knuteson in an afternoon garden ceremony solemnized by the Rev. Gene Lewin, a missionary with the American Union Sunday School.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephen of Nyssa and Mrs. Julie Knuteson of Wisconsin Rapids, Wis.

The bride was attired in an Empire gown of pol de sole. Her scalloped lace bodice was trimmed with pearls and a chapel train fell from the waistline. Her veil was secured to a rosette of roses and she carried a bouquet of cascading yellow roses and white carnations.

Baskets of flowers, emphasized with yellow gladioli, were placed in the garden. A white arbor and trellises, graced with flowers provided the setting.

Maid of honor was Christine Stephen, sister of the bride. She wore a gown of apple-green brocade and carried a bouquet of yellow pom pon chrysanthemums. Flower girls were the bride's nieces, Janelle Mosso and Sharon Ewell. Their dresses were yellow and they carried yellow umbrella baskets.

ANK WOMEN TELL ACTIVITIES; GIVE LIST OF OFFICERS

ANK Garden Club women held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Orland Cheldelin. She was assisted by Mrs. Dale Ashcraft.

Mrs. Maurice L. Judd, president, was in charge of the business meeting. The project at the Malheur Memorial Nursing Home was discussed, but with the new addition still under construction it was agreed very little could be done at this time.

Delegates to the State Garden club convention at Maryhurst college gave their reports. Mrs. Judd was honored at the convention with a 'life-membership' from this district. Money contributed toward this award will go for two scholarships in Horticulture at Oregon State university in Corvallis. The delegates visited the National cemetery at Willamette. This was a fitting tour as the meeting immediately followed Memorial Day.

After the business meeting at the June ANK session, officers for the coming year were installed. They are Mrs. Arie Bakker, president; Mrs. Elton McCormick, vice president; Mrs. John Olsen, secretary; Mrs. Dale Ashcraft, treasurer.

Mark Stephen, brother of the bride, was best man, with Axel and Jeff Stephen, her cousins serving as ushers.

Roger, Joyce and Barbara Haney sang to the accompaniment of Annette Haney.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stephen wore a pink-bonded knit-dress with a pink corsage of feathered carnations. Sister of the bridegroom wore a gown of yellow crepe, with a corsage of yellow carnations.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stephen, assisted by the bride's two sisters, Mrs. Bob (Pauline) Ewell and Mrs. Bob (Joanne) Mosso who served cake and punch. Mrs. Ron (Jackie) Malcolm poured coffee, with Mrs. Raymond Norland assisting. Sandra Ward and Susan Norland were in charge of the guest book and gifts.

Out-of-state guests included Mrs. Ron Malcolm, of Wisconsin Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Wallace of Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ewell of Anaheim, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mosso of Bellflower, Calif., Mrs. James O. Stephen and girls of Burns, Mark Stephen of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace of Hailey, Idaho.

The bride is a Nyssa high school graduate and recently was employed by the Internal Revenue service in Washington D. C. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lincoln high school and served four years with the U. S. Army Security Agency, with one year in Vietnam. He is presently employed at the Nekoosa Edward Paper company in Wisconsin Rapids.

The bride's traveling costume was a two-piece yellow knit ensemble. The newlyweds plan a wedding trip of the western United States and Canada. They will make their home at 457 Miller Ave., Wisconsin Rapids.

GEM CLUB MEETING

Members of the Treasure Valley Rock and Gem club will hold their regular meeting at 8 p.m., Friday, June 21 in the conference room at Nyssa public library.

These meetings are open to anyone with interests in various gems and rock collecting.

CONNIE LEE PRICE

Her engagement to Jesse Ray Window is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Price. Her fiancé is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Window of Farmville, N. C. The bride-elect was graduated from Nyssa high school, attended Northwest Nazarene College in Nampa and Treasure Valley Community college. The future-bridegroom was graduated from Farmville high school and is presently serving with the U. S. Air Force stationed at Wurtsmith AFB in Michigan. A late October wedding is being planned by the betrothed couple.

PINOCHLE PARTIES

First place winners at the Saturday evening IOOF pinochle party were Esther Brown and Owen Cann, with Babe Richardson and John Reeves placing second high.

Traveling awards went to Alice Neiger and Tom Drydale. Serving as hostesses for the June 15 session were Merle Johnson and Alice Neiger.

Next card party will be Saturday evening June 29 at the Odd Fellows hall in Nyssa, with play beginning at 8 o'clock.

Members of the afternoon pinochle club met June 12 at the home of Mrs. S. C. McConnell. Mrs. Wyatt Smith took high honors, with Mrs. William Schoen receiving the low-score prize. Mrs. Alma Kingrey and Mrs. Orma Cleaver received the traveling awards.

Next session will be June 26 at the home of Mrs. Schoen.

PAULA LEE CLEAVER

Mr. and Mrs. Garner Cleaver of Unionville, Iowa announce the engagement of their daughter, Paula Lee to Dwight E. Jones of Centerville. Both attended and graduated this spring from Centerville junior college. Jones plans to attend Iowa State university this fall to continue his study in engineering. Miss Cleaver is a granddaughter of Nyssans Mr. and Mrs. John Cleaver, and has a number of other relatives in this area. The Cleaver family has visited in the Nyssa vicinity on several occasions. Plans are being made for an August 24, 1968 candlelight wedding ceremony.

KATHLEEN WENKE

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wenke of Adrian, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen to Martin J. Utech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter of Adrian. The bride-elect and her fiancé, both 1968 graduates of Adrian high school, plan a September 1968 wedding.

Hosts Samba Party

Members of the Samba club met June 14 at the home of Mrs. Fred Guthrie. Mrs. Emil (Alta) Stunz was the high score winner, with Mrs. Guthrie taking second high honors.

EMBLEM CLUB ACTIVITIES

An Emblem club social meeting was held May 27 at the Elks lodge hall. Entertainment for the evening was a program on ceramics. Mrs. Hon, and two assistants, Mrs. Gentry and Mrs. Cramer gave a brief resume on how the items are made.

Mrs. Gentry recently won a "Freddy" in a ceramic show at Caldwell where she took top honors on a stein. Many lovely ceramic items were on display.

Emblem club women held a meeting on June 10 at the Elks temple.

Reports on the 12th annual Oregon convention were given. Those attending the state meeting in Brookings included Ruth McIntyre, Diana Ingalls, Arlene Allison and Zena Fritts.

The foursome also comprised a bowling team for an Emblem tournament. Others attending were President Mary Jenson, Junior Past President Evelyn Shaw, Past President Helen Molnig, Melita Fife, past state president and past president of Ontario Emblem club 192; and Nellie McDaniels.

President Mary Jenson served as delegate pro tem for Virginia Hoyle, second assistant marshal.

Evelyn Shaw was elected to the state office of fourth vice president. Ontario Emblem club

MR. AND MRS. SAM SHAW

To Celebrate Silver Event

An open house reception will be held from 2:30 to 5 p.m., Sunday, June 23, 1968 at the honorees' home on Grove road in the Oregon Slope community. Hosts for the silver anniversary celebration will be the Shaw's sons, Herbert and Don. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend. The Shaws' request is "no gifts - please!"

women are looking forward to having the state convention at Ontario in four years.

The state group passed a bond measure to give two $50 bonds (to be taken from scholarship fund) on patriotism. This will go to one junior high and a senior high school student.

Verna Coffinberry was presented a trophy for the most hours of community service. She had a total of 1432 hours.

Emblem club 192 has been asked to serve the golf banquet, with Ruth McIntyre as kitchen chairman; and Verna Coffinberry serving as dining room chairman. The Elks invited the women to attend their Flag Day services.

Next blood drawing will be from 12 noon to 5 p.m. on July 1 at the Elks temple.

Bea Kanrich won the kitty, and a white elephant, given by Evelyn Shaw, was auctioned: Highest bidder was Pat McCosum.

Emblem club 192 will hold their last social meeting for the summer at 8 p.m. Monday, June 24. This will be a barbecue at the Ontario Lions park, and will honor husbands of Emblem club members.

Each one is asked to take a salad or dessert or own table service. In case of inclement weather the group will meet at the lodge hall.
