

NYSSA POLICE CHIEF ALVIN ALLEN and FRANK SIMMONS, a member of the Police Reserve, sell the first ticket to the forthcoming Policemen's Ball to LEE DAIL, Nyssa postmaster and member of the Nyssa city council. The dance is scheduled to begin at 9 p. m., Saturday, June 29 at the Nyssa FOE hall. Music will be provided by the popular 'Tijuana Grass' band, and proceeds will go to the Police Reserve fund. The organization is comprised of local men who have taken special training to assist members of the police department on special occasions and during emergencies. Tickets for the dance are being sold in advance, or they may be purchased at the door. THIS IS A PUBLIC AFFAIR! - Journal Photo.

GAME REGULATIONS

 eastern Oregon, hunters will be allowed to take bull elk only during the latter part of the season beginning November 16 and extending through November 20.
 Limited trophy hunts were set for mountain goats and big-horn sheep, with eight tags to be issued for goats and six for sheep, three each for Hart Mountain and the Steens. The tag quota for antelope was set for 785 with the season scheduled for August 17 through 21.
 Except for minor changes, archery hunters were allowed seasons almost identical to last year, with the main season in a number of areas extending from August 24 through September 22.
 Big game hunters are advised that a complete synopsis of the regulations will be available in early July.

Ore-Ida Foods, Union Okay 3-Year Labor Plan

Food Processors Local No. 670, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and Ore-Ida Foods, Inc., reached agreement on a three-year labor contract effective June 1, 1968, covering employees at Ore-Ida's Ontario factory. Employees ratified the new agreement at a general meeting held June 9, 1968.

In addition to substantial wage increases, other highlights of the contract were improvements in the company pension plan, adoption of the Teamster Health and Welfare Plan, an additional holiday, increase in shift bonus pay, reduction in eligibility requirements for vacation and attendance bonus, and general improvements in overtime provisions. The agreement will cover approximately 1200 employees during the peak season.
