 TUESDAY - 2 P.M. to 8 P.M.
 WEDNESDAY - 12 Noon to 6 P.M.
 THURSDAY - 10 A.M. to 6 P.M.
 FRIDAY and SATURDAY - 12 Noon to 6 P.M.

According to Mrs. Max (Norma) Urry, the following books are now available at the local library.

THE KINDERGARTEN HOW-TO-DO-IT BOOK by Ruth J. Adams. This book has been written and compiled to help other teachers by sharing those practices which have proved most helpful to the author during her twenty-odd years of kindergarten teaching.

BETWEEN PARENT AND CHILD by Dr. Haim G. Ginott. New solutions to old problems. All parents want their children to be happy and secure. No parent wakes up in the morning and deliberately plans to make his child's life tense, fearful, and unhappy. But despite the best intentions this is often what happens.

PUNISHMENT WITHOUT CRIME by Isidore Zimmerman. This is the true story of a man who spent twenty-four years in prison for a crime he did not commit.

THE STORY OF THE HUMAN HAND by Walter Sorell. With sophistication and insight, the author explores the human hand for its meaning, expressiveness and potentialities. He describes the role of the hand in the myth and magic of primitive man, and its use in all religions.

YEARBOOK OF ASTRO-NOMY editor Patrick Moore. This book is specially designed for the amateur astronomer and has two articles on the moon and two on meteorites.

THE ART OF BEING AN INTELLECTUAL by Ignace Lepp. A practical guide to the joys and discipline of the life of the mind.

FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS THAT LAST. Now your home can be luxuriously and colorfully decorated with lovely out-of-season flowers and foliage all year long. Just read this book where there are more than 100 attractive as well as practical illustrations.

THE COSTS OF AMERICAN GOVERNMENTS by Frederick C. Mosher & Orville F. Poland. This study may properly be considered an institutional rather than an individual product. It was begun, and was carried on from the start, as a project of the Institute of Governmental Studies at the University of California.

THE GREEK ANTHOLOGY. A new selection and translation with an introduction by Andrew Sinclair. The original Greek anthology. A collection of more than four thousand epigrams, the bulk of which were written between the sixth century B.C. and the sixth century A.D.

THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY AND ITS MAGAZINE by Gilbert Grosvenor. A history with an account of the Society's activities today by John Oliver La Gorce.

THE LAST UNICORN by Peter S. Beagle. This book may well join that widely read masterpiece as a book that speaks with a mysterious but tangible resonance to a receptive audience.

THE TOWER OF BABEL by Morris L. West. Mr. West unlocks all the secret doors, takes the reader not only inside the meeting rooms but also into the participants' minds, and leaves him with the conviction that this is the way it really is.

WHERE EAGLES DARE by Alistair MacLean. Here the reader is pulled back into the terror-filled days of World War II, as he was in the author's famous novel, "The Guns of Navarone."

MAKE YOUR OWN TV REPAIRS by Art Margolis. This latest television repair book the author shows you how you can fix approximately ninety percent of all TV troubles.

THE U. F. O. REPORT by Irving A. Greenfield. This is a hard-hitting report of the real facts on unidentified flying objects -- with latest eyewitness testimony.

PATIENTS, DOCTORS AND FAMILIES by Faye C. Lewis, M.D. Throughout this informative book, the author, who was the first woman to receive a medical degree from Washington State University. Evidences a disarming appreciation of the importance of family relationships and their positive influence on the rapport between Doctor and patient.

CHILTON'S 1968 AUTO REPAIR MANUAL by Paul A. Murphy. Practical, easy-to-read instructions cover every aspect of automotive maintenance, servicing and reconditioning for American made cars. This manual also includes a section on Volkswagon.

LIFE EVERLASTING IN FREEDOM OF THE SONS OF GOD by Watchtower Bible and Tract Society.

MODERN MOTHERHOOD by H. M. I. Liley, M.D., with Beth Day. The only book which covers pregnancy, childbirth and the first six months of life.

SOCIAL POLICIES FOR AMERICA IN THE SEVENTIES: NINE DIFFERENT VIEWS by Robert Theobald. "This book is concerned with the alterations in our economic and social values that is being fundamentally changed by the impact of science and technology," writes Robert Theobald in his Preface.

DOWN HALF THE WORLD by Elizabeth Coatsworth. The poems in this fresh and varied collection, most of which have never appeared in book form before, range from nature appreciations, which Miss Coatsworth characterizes as "more truly glimpses of how the writer feels at some moment of awareness"; to sketches for historical portraits, "an entire confrontation of character in twenty lines"; to what she calls "mystery poems" - gothic verse tempered by bantering humor.

A NATION FIGHTS BACK by Irving Werstein. Here is exciting history that recaptures the spirit of the times, the people, the events during one of the most tragic periods in our nation's development. With clarity and objectivity, the author traces the causes, the effects, the heartbreak and the slow climb back to normalcy as a nation fights to uphold the democratic way of life.

YAZ by Carl Yastrzemski with Al Hirshberg. The story is Yaz's, the story of a strange and inspiring comeback. But it is also the story of a team which would not believe its bad press notices, which rose from a dismal ninth place to the top in a single season. The glory is mutual.

PENDLETON GUEST SLATED TO SPEAK AT TVCBPW MEET

Mrs. Jay (Marie) Hughes of Pendleton will be the guest speaker at the July 2 meeting of the Treasure Valley Christian Business and Professional Women's council.

The no host dinner meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., at the La Paloma cafe in Ontario. Mrs. Hughes is past chairman of the Christian Women's club and is presently serving as area counselor. She is a graduate of Oregon State university, at Corvallis and has been a 4-H leader for over 14 years. She has four children, three in college and one teenager.

The program announces that there will be an unusual special feature, interesting and full of surprises.

Music for the evening will be provided by Vocalist Clint Bellows.

Anyone interested in attending the session is asked to make reservations by calling Mrs. Verle Gunderson, 889-6289.

CORRECTION . . .

In last week's issue of the Journal there were pictures of two gardens, products of Elvin Ballou's eight-grade science students.

When reporting information for the story, Ballou named Gib Holmes as manager of Simplot Soilbuilders which furnished fertilizer for the garden plots.

Since then he learned that the plant manager is not Holmes, but RON SCHOENEMAN. Ballou has asked the Journal to please run a correction, with an apology to Schoeneman, on his behalf.
