

MRS. RUTH ELLIOTT, only sister of the six CLEAVER brothers (l to r) LaVerne - Delbert - Eugene - Leonard - Lloyd and Lester, and her husband, Emery of Houston, Mo., were visitors last week in the area. This was their first trip back to Eastern Oregon since the death of the Cleavers' father, George Cleaver, eight years ago. The Elliots and their two children, Mary Ann and Billie, resided in this community in 1944. Their visit was climaxed with a Sunday potluck picnic at the Lester Cleaver home. Forty-three members of the family and several friends were present for the gathering.

ACTIVITIES IN ARCADIA

BY AVO MOELLER - PHONE 372-2733

ARCADIA - Mrs. Cecil Houston is recuperating at her home after suffering a broken ankle. The mishap happened Saturday when her horse jumped and dragged her by a rope at her farm home, shortly after she had been driving cattle in a pasture. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pike of Boise spent the weekend in the Houston home.

The Harlan Meyer family entertained one of the visiting foreign exchange students over the weekend. She is Marisa Tascani from Argentina. The Coe Abe family also kept one of the students in their home. She was Norma Gonzales, also from Argentina.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Matherly attended the Old Timers fiddlers' activities Saturday in Weiser.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zittercob went to Portland last week to attend funeral services for his oldest sister, Marie Cram.

Arcadia club women met June 14 at the home of Mrs. Fred Norman near Cairo. Present were 14 members and two visitors, Mrs. Vard Olson of Rapid City, S. D., and Mrs. Tom Pettet. Roll call was answered by the women telling how they met their husbands. Mrs. Clyde Bowers drew the hostess gift.

Mrs. Marvin Schnable was elected president; Mrs. Amy Stradley, vice president; Mrs. Brig Olsen, secretary-treasurer.
