ANOTHER UNUSUAL ENTRY in the 1968 Nyssa Nite Rodeo parade was this stagecoach, sponsored by members of the Oregon Trail Grange. Out in front, astride 'Cap', is Master Don Somers carrying the OT grange banner. The 'coach' was secured from the Malheur County Fair Board, and pulling it is a team of horses belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Stringer, who are riding on the stage with some of their hired men. Six young ladies are inside, and even though they are not visible, as they rode along the parade route they threw 'candy kisses' to the viewers.

They are Judith Laurance, Sundae Savage, Patty Dority, Marlene Jamieson, Renee and Marty Somers. Also aboard is Gary Kurtz. Harold Kurtz and Alva Goodell rode their steeds as guardsmen for the unit. This reporter was unable to contact the Stringers for additional information about the horses pulling the stagecoach. According to Somers, it is believed that they are among the largest in this part of the country, weighing approximately one ton each, and are four and five years old. - Staff Photo.
