

NEWS FROM BIG BEND

BY GOLDIE ROBERTS

BIG BEND - Mr. and Mrs. Noel Tuppeny returned home recently from a six-week vacation spent visiting their son, John and family at Cape Kennedy, Fla., their daughter, Mrs. John Luciano and family at Denver, Colo., and other relatives at Hill City, and Concordia, Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. Inaki Eiguren and family of Albion, Idaho spent several recent days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Silloni; brothers, Pete and Mike and their families.

Miss Linda Bishop of Grants Pass, Ore., arrived August 6 for a two-week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verl Bishop.

Mrs. Howard Van deWater of Marion, Ind., is visiting in the Boyce and Bill Van deWater homes.

Mrs. James Hollingworth of Boise arrived August 11 to get her son, Bobby who had spent a week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Higgins.

Mrs. Dyre Roberts entertained Happy Dozen Card club members August 9. Guest players were Mrs. George DeHaven, Mrs. Bill Willis, Mrs. Delno Brock, Edythe Prosser and Mary Jarvis. Prizes were won by Mrs. Bill Ashcraft, Mrs. Mary Looney, Mrs. Prosser and Mrs. Jarvis.

Mrs. Lola Tinker and children of Sturgeon, Mo. spent August 5 with her sister, Mrs. Phil Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cartwright visited August 7 with Mrs. Naomi Wright in Nampa.

Mrs. Charlotte McGinnis of Adrian is convalescing at the James McGinnis home following her recent release from Malheur Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Avery visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Walker at Weiser and went boating and water skiing on the Snake river near Huntington.

Messrs. and Mmes Charles, Ben and Joe Witty and family visited August 11 with Mrs. Bill Spears in Vale and with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Spears, Mrs. Mabel Spears and cousins from Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kadel and family of Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Graham and Peggy Lynn of Nampa, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Chaney took dinner to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Chaney on August 11 to celebrate Mrs. Chaney's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Decker and son of Coburn, Idaho arrived August 10 to visit Mr. and Mrs. Noel Tuppeny. Mrs. Dale Smith of Cortez, Colo., is also a visitor in the Tuppeny home.

Mrs. Ernest Seuell, Mrs. Ben Witty and Mrs. Verl Bishop attended a recent installation tea for Extension officers at the Lions park in Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Ludy of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thompson and Todd of LaGrande are in Big Bend this week getting Mrs. Ludy's home ready for the Clarence Nelson family of Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lindquist and family of Palo Alto, Calif., arrived August 11 for a visit of several days with her Aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Van deWater.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Clucas and family, Mrs. Lola Tinker and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. D.

Knapp went on a recent picnic outing to Starkey hot springs. Mrs. Roy Cartwright caught a 21-inch, 5-pound trout on August 11 when fishing at Snively tunnel.

Mmes. Leroy and Alan Bennett, Ernest Seuell, Boyce Van deWater, Varner Hopkins and Mrs. Beatrice Coons attended a recent Adrian garden club meeting at the home of Mrs. George DeHaven.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bennett attended a family dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kniefel in Parma.

Mrs. Jim Miller and children visited August 11 with Pat Stam in Holy Rosary hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cartwright spent August 10 at Mercy hospital in Nampa at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. William Lawler of Meridean who underwent surgery that morning.

Miss Linda Bishop attended the August 9 Parma Toastmistress picnic with Mrs. Pat Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brumbaugh Jr. and family and Mrs. Persis Brumbaugh of Roswell visited August 11 with Mr. and Mrs. Noel Tuppeny and their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Clucas and family attended the August 11 Lost River picnic in Boise. They later attended a family picnic in Caldwell.

Mrs. Carroll Thomas and children of Caldwell visited August 6 with Mr. and Mrs. Verl Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Val Sorensen.

Relatives arriving for the recent Guy Ocamica funeral services included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Madarieta of Rupert, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bidaburie of Burns, Ponciano Arrizabalaga of Mt. Home, Ernest Arrizabalaga and Mrs. Marie Martin of Emmett, Antonio and Gloria Ocamica, Mrs. Marie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Logan of Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reed and Lauri of Boise visited August 10 with Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Van deWater. In the evening they attended a concert of the Bob Jones ensemble at the New Plymouth conservative Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Sorensen left August 7 for their home in Wichita, Kans., after visiting for two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Verl Bishop.

Calling on Mrs. Guy Ocamica and Regina August 11 were Mr. and Mrs. George Sumpter, Antonio and Gloria Ocamica of Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibson of Nampa, Mrs. Marie Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Logan of Boise, Mrs. Frank Churrucua and Julio of Marsing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald (Sharon Johnson) Findley and family of San Jose, Calif., were recent visitors in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Gann. While in the Treasure Valley area they visited his mother, Mrs. Pauline Knighten; his father, Roscoe Findley and his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, all of Vale. They also attended his Ontario high school class reunion. They have now returned to their home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Glenn arrived home August 11 after visiting sites of interest in Idaho. They camped at Lowman; visited Sun Valley, Idaho Falls and at Arco, the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin (Sherrie) Crawford. They were present for a quiet celebration of the first birthday anniversary of Glen Crawford.

Wayne Riggs of Corvallis recently made a hurried trip home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Riggs. Mrs. Marjean Bryson, Kathy and Ricky of Tacoma, Wash., were August 12 dinner guests of her aunt, Mrs. Lewis Riggs. They had been vacationing and visiting relatives at Rigby, Idaho, and were enroute home when they stopped in Nyssa.

Members of the Dan Mundy family are planning a family reunion Saturday and Sunday, August 17-18 at the family home.

PETERSONS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Peterson and DeeAnn returned home August 7 from a "long-awaited" trip. They left July 26 by jetliner for Greenville, Mich., to visit their son, Delbert Peterson who is LDS presiding bishop there.

The Nyssa trio accompanied their son and his family by auto to Palmira, N. Y. where they saw the LDS pageant, "Witness For Christ". They also went to Kirkland, Ohio where they visited the first LDS temple ever to be built.

They also visited the jail in

Carthage, Ill., site of the Killing of Joseph Smith. They went to Nauvoo where the LDS people settled, but were driven out. Some of the buildings there are being renovated, however, the temple was destroyed, Mrs. Peterson said.

The travelers then returned to Greenville, and the Petersons came on home by jet.

They report traveling 5,000 air miles and 3,000 miles by auto. Mrs. Peterson said they had a wonderful trip, but it felt good to be back in 'dry' country where their clothing didn't feel like it was sticking to their bodies.

Ellen Jones Attends Meeting In Chicago

Mrs. Ellen Jones returned home August 9 from a trip to Chicago where she attended an advanced seminar of classes in Forensic Graphoanalysis. Instructor was Professor Andre A. Moensens, Director for Criminal Justice of the Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Among special events attended by IGAS members was a Bunker breakfast with New York Senator Murry Schwartz, as keynote speaker. The annual 'night out' included a cruise on Lake Michigan and the Chicago river, followed by a dinner and entertainment at Marina City in downtown Chicago.

On Thursday evening the members attended the annual banquet and heard an address by Dr. Duncan Wimpres, president of Monmouth College of Monmouth, Ill. Approximately 400 members were in attendance and all classes were held in Chicago's Sheraton Hotel.

Enroute home Mrs. Jones visited a step son, former Nysson Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Jones in Clinton, and Mrs. Irene Earl in Des Moines, Iowa; Mrs. Sturling Matthews at Longmont and Mrs. Willard Trimble in Broomfield, Colo.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Frank Byers; her sister, Mrs. Ethel Lay and a friend, Mrs. Frances Kratzberg left August 2 for Lewiston, Ida., to visit with Mrs. Byers' daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett (Connie) Grants and family. Mrs. Byers also visited her grandson, David who recently underwent a recent serious tonsillectomy. Enroute home on August 6 they stopped in Grangeville to visit longtime friends and former Notus residents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schirman and three sons of Medford, Ore., were recent visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schireman. While here his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred (Phyllis) Ginder and daughter, Carol of Gardena, Calif., arrived. Phyllis attended the class of 1943 Nyssa high school reunion. The Glenn Schiremans returned to their home August 5 and the Ginders left August 6 for California.

Journal Classifieds
Bring Results

Tender, Ready-to-Eat, Smoked

PICNICS

The Savingest Buy of the Week

These picnics are the tastiest, thriftiest meat buys.

Expertly sugar-cured, deep hickory smoked, and pre-cooked to rich flavor perfection.

SMOKED PICNICS

37¢ lb.
SLICED FREE

BAKERY

Assorted Flavor

Picnic Cakes

39¢ each

Morrell's Assorted

Lunch Meats

3 89¢
6-oz. Pkgs.

Choice and Good

Chuck Steak

only 49¢ lb.

SPECIAL

Cantaloupes

Local Grown. 8¢ lb.
Jumbo Size.

Tomatoes

Local Grown. 2 lbs. 25¢

Green Beans

Double Luck No. 303 Cans 8 For $1

Sausage

Libby's Vienna 5 4-oz. Cans

Pears

Mellowest No. 2 1/2 Cans 3 For

Corn

Western Family Cream or W.K. 5 303 Cans

Applesauce

Tastewell 7 303 Cans

Tomato Sauce

Hunt's 7 1/2-oz. Cans 9 For

Frozen Foods

PASCO

Orange Juice

6 6-oz. cans $1

MEADOW GOLD

Sherbet

Half Gallon 59¢

Nabisco

Ritz

CRACKERS

2

1-lb. pkgs.

79¢

WE GIVE GOLD STRIKE STAMPS
Home of Quality and Service
Nyssa • Ontario • Vale

Toilet Tissue

Zee Brand

3 4-Roll $1.00
Packs

SPECIAL

LIBBY'S

Catchup

3

20-oz. Bottles

89¢

LIBBY'S

Drink

Pineapple-Grapefruit
46-oz. Cans

4 For $1

LaVora Smith

She recently completed the practical nurses course of Caldwell Memorial hospital and was among those participating in graduation exercises held on the evening of August 8, 1968. The rites were conducted at the LDS church located at Twelfth and Everett streets in Caldwell. LaVora is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of the Mitchell Butte area, was graduated in 1960 from Adrian high school and served as secretary for the class of nurses. She is presently employed at the Blakely nursing home in Caldwell.

Wayne Riggs of Corvallis recently made a hurried trip home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Riggs. Mrs. Marjean Bryson, Kathy and Ricky of Tacoma, Wash., were August 12 dinner guests of her aunt, Mrs. Lewis Riggs. They had been vacationing and visiting relatives at Rigby, Idaho, and were enroute home when they stopped in Nyssa.