

GARDENERS PLAN CHRISTMAS SHOW

CEDRIC FOSTER

He will be guest speaker at the Knife and Fork club meeting slated at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 26 at East Side cafe.

Mrs. Blake Lowell of the Big Bend area entertained Nov. 12 for members of the ANK garden club, with Mrs. Elton McCormick assisting with 1:30 dessert refreshments.

Twenty-one members were present, and a brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Arie Bakker.

Plans for the annual Christmas floral show were discussed. It will be held Dec. 7-8 in the basement of Nyssa United Methodist church.

Charles Davidson of McCall gave an informal talk on gardening in general at the Nov. 12 meeting. He mentioned several plants to try in home gardens.

At the December meeting, all members are asked to take a small gift or corsage material for girls at the Hillcrest school in Salem.

I have yet to encounter that common myth of weak men - an insurmountable barrier. - James Lane Allen.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD C. CREGO

A Sunday, November 10, 1968 wedding in the Cana Chapel of the First United Methodist church in Boise united Miss Peggy Harrison and Donald Clyde Crego.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Kay K. Harrison, 1415 Holly, Boise and parents of the groom are Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Crego of Nyssa.

The bride was attired in a gown of chantilly lace with a scalloped neck line on a fitted bodice and a hooped skirt flared in front with bows.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Sue Brown of Yakima, Wash., and bridesmaids were Miss Annie Crego, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Stephen Riley of Nampa. Best man for Crego was his brother, Charles of Nyssa, while Stephen Riley of Nampa and Keith Werts of Mountain Home Air Base served as ushers.

Flower girl and ring bearer were Melissa and Douglas Kenyon of Wilder, niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

Candlelighters were David Crego, brother of the groom and Bryan Snyder of Nampa, cousin of the bride.

Soloist for the wedding was Eldon Snyder of Nampa, an uncle of the bride, who sang "Because."

Mmes. Vern Stillwell of Payette, Eldon Snyder of Nampa, Mesdames Fern Coonse and Colleen Andrews of Boise served at the reception in the Bishop's Lounge in the church.

Miss Eldonna Snyder of Nampa, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guestbook, while Mmes. Dale Kenyon of Wilder and Richard Coulson of Boise cared for the gifts.

The new Mrs. Crego is a

FARM-CITY WEEK

Oregon's farm investment (value of land, buildings, livestock and machinery), has increased from $1.5 billion in 1950 to $2.8 billion in 1967.
