MISS SYLVIA ENDARA

Portrait by Schoen.

Nyssa High School's petite American Field Service exchange student from Ecuador, has been selected as queen of Ontario's Winter Wonderland parade for 1968.

The 17-year-old student is making her home with the Mark Hartley family for the school year.

She was also honored earlier when she was chosen the 1968 NHS football homecoming queen by fellow students.

Sylvia's two princesses for the Dec. 7 parade in the neighboring town will be Linda Jean Parton, a New Plymouth senior; and Suzie Paine, a senior student at Vallivue high.

The three royal subjects were selected from a field of 11 girls who were judged on a basis of attractiveness, poise and personality.

Dec. 1 dinner guests of Mrs. Helen Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Conley Wilson of Pinehurst, Duane Wilson and Marvin Jackson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Morgan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wilson and family.

Letters to the Editor

Dear "Someone",

Someone at the paper office there on about Nov. 14, informed an aunt of mine where we had moved to.

Consequently, we had a wonderful reunion this week with an aunt and uncle of mine whom I hadn't seen for 31 years. They are from Scottsbluff, Nebraska. So whoever it was, THANKS!! - Sincerely, Jack Glaze, McArthur, Calif. 96056

Dear Mr. Brammer:

We wish to express our deepest and most sincere thanks for the cooperation which you have given the Salvation Army throughout the year. It is this kind of cooperation which enables the Salvation Army to carry on its humanitarian work with the less fortunate.

Again thanks, may the blessing of the seasons be yours. - Sincerely, James Grassley, Director Service Extension.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Are trends in history inevitable, thus making it impossible for human intelligence and good will to determine the course of history? For instance, now in this nation we seem to be following the happenings of the old Roman Empire which made a god out of its emperor - in that the President of the United States is well nigh thus becoming so "sanctified," further debauching that branch of government closest to the people, the legislative, Congress!

Article I, Section 8, Clause 18, U. S. Constitution, is the veritable key to legislative hegemony. If Congress would so use its powers thereunder, instead of buckpassing vital decisions to the life-termed U. S. Courts and/or to the one, well nigh almighty U. S. President!

But perhaps trends are inevitable, and man's intellect is but nil in this whole deal! If so, count me OUT - of being considered a local standard phony, and, ergo, playing ball with such inevitability! Phooey on "inevitability"! - Americanly, Henry Stoner, Chairman, Committee to Constitutionalize Congress.

To the Editor:

I would like to express to your readers my personal gratitude to all who supported my reelection to Congress by their vote and their help and my deep appreciation to all the people of the Second District for the good will and friendship displayed throughout the campaign.

It is a distinct honor to serve the people of Oregon in the U. S. House of Representatives, and my wish is to continue to serve in a manner that will merit their confidence and approval, regardless of political affiliation.

There will be many difficult problems facing the new Congress. As always, I will welcome comments and advice on these issues, and pledge my strongest efforts to bring about effective solutions. Sincerely - Al Ullman, M. C.
