Entered at the Post Office at Nyssa, Oregon, for transmission through the United States Mails, as a Second Class Matter under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THE CHURCH WORLD SERVICE CLOTHING truck arrived Monday morning, Dec. 16, 1968 from Modesto, Calif. The men, Don Watkins and Jay Good picked up 1,000 pounds of clothing and 111 pounds of used soap. The garments had been collected, boxed and tied by members of eight local churches. The 10 cents per pound for handling was collected in the amount of $113.15, and an additional $27 was given to purchase nine blankets. An expression of appreciation goes to all who shared clothing for the drive, and to the women's groups of the various churches for packaging the clothing. The next CWS clothing collection will be some time in May. In the photo with the CWS men is the Rev. Wallace Prowell of the Nyssa Christian church.

HENRY ESTRICK

Funeral service arrangements for Henry Estrick of route 3, Meridian, were pending at Robison Chapel of the Chimes in Meridian at Journal presstime Monday.

Mr. Estrick, 58, succumbed Sunday evening at his home, after suffering an apparent heart attack.

His widow is a sister of Mrs. Orma Cleaver of Nyssa.

OBITUARIES

MAURICE O. JUDD

Funeral services for Maurice Overstreet Judd of route 1, Nyssa, were conducted Saturday, Dec. 21, 1968 at Lienkaemper chapel in Nyssa. Officiating was the Rev. Elmer Rosenkilde of Kingman Memorial Presbyterian church in Adrian.

Mr. Judd succumbed Dec. 18 at Holy Rosary hospital in Ontario, after suffering a recent heart attack.

He was born Oct. 28, 1925 at Parma, a son of Maurice L. and Martha Overstreet Judd. He attended Adrian schools and the College of Idaho in Caldwell.

On Sept. 8, 1950, the deceased was married to Sally Kinney of Ontario.

Mr. Judd farmed in the Newell Heights community, was a member of the Adrian church and had served on the church board for several years.

He was also a member of the Treasure Valley Community college board of directors, Nyssa Masonic lodge, Adrian Lions club and Adrian American Legion post. He was also active in work of the Boy Scouts of America and served on the boards of directors for the potato association and local hospital.

The deceased was a veteran of World War II, having served with the U. S. Army in Japan.

His favorite hobbies were boating, fishing and rock-hunting.

In addition to his widow and parents, Mr. Judd is survived by three sons, Thomas, 16; Daniel, 14; and Mark, 12, all of the home. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. John (Ellen) Downer of Taft, Calif., and a paternal grandmother, Mrs. Olive Judd of Parma.

Interment was made in the Owyhee cemetery. Serving as active pallbearers were George Schiemer, George Cartwright, Carl Lee Hill, Gerrit Timmerman, Joe Saito and William Schroeder. Members of the TVCC board of directors served as honorary pallbearers.

TROY LEE CATES

Services for Former Nyssan Troy Lee Cates, 43, were conducted Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 24, 1968 at Relyea chapel in Boise. Officiating was the Rev. Archie Thornton of the Red Rock Christian church. Interment was made at DryCreek.

Mr. Cates succumbed late Saturday night at his home, 6320 Ustick road in Boise.

He was born Nov. 25, 1925 in Chickasha, Okla., and moved in 1938 to Nyssa. He attended schools here before entering the U. S. Army in February 1942.

He was married to Esther Andrews on Aug. 14, 1944 at Winnemucca, Nev.

After his discharge from military service, he lived in the Wilder, Caldwell and Boise areas. Since 1952 he had been in the trucking business.

In addition to his widow of the home, he is survived by one son, Marty of Boise; two daughters, Jackie Cates of Boise and Mrs. Sharon Riley of Portland; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Cates of Boise.

Also surviving are six brothers, Homer J. and Clifford C., both of Caldwell, Don S. and Bill D., both of Boise, Larry W. of Los Angeles and Richard Cates of Orofino.

How to earn up to 5% (and more) on your savings.

TWO WAYS TO EARN 5% INTEREST:

1 A six-month deposit certificate. You deposit (or should we say invest) any amount from $500 to a maximum of $100,000. Your money earns 5% interest (annually) at maturity of the certificate. Deposit certificates mature in six months. And you can arrange for automatic renewal at maturity.

1 A two-year income certificate. The 5% annual interest is guaranteed to the two-year maturity date of the certificate. Interest is paid by check or deposited to your account each quarter. Or, if you prefer, you may purchase an income certificate which earns 5.22% when interest is compounded quarterly and the certificate is held to full two-year maturity.

TRADITIONAL BANK SAVINGS PLANS:

1 The Regular Savings Account. You may know this plan best as the standard passbook method. You earn 4% interest on your regular savings, compounded and paid quarterly. Important too, your money is harder to spend when it is safely on deposit at First National. Start your savings plan today—choose the one that fits your needs best.

1 Save-O-Matic. This is an exclusive First National savings system that is ideal for those who may have trouble saving money. (Most of us do.) A Save-O-Matic account starts your saving and keeps you saving. With Save-O-Matic an agreed-upon amount is transferred from your checking account automatically every month and deposited to your passbook savings account. Your balance grows. It is habit-forming. No charge for the service.

DEPOSITS MADE ON OR BEFORE JANUARY 10th EARN INTEREST FROM JANUARY 1st.
