St. Bridget's News

The Mexican Americans together with other members of St. Bridget's parish, Nyssa; Blessed Sacrament, Ontario; and Holy Family, Vale, celebrated the Feast of our Lady of Guadalupe with a Spanish Mass celebrated by Father John Baumgartner, at St. Bridget's. Father Charles Young delivered the sermon in Spanish explaining the history of the apparitions and the meaning it had for the Aztecs of the time, and the meaning it should have in our own day. The picture of Our Lady was carried in procession by Rudy Longoria and Rupert Saldana with Ruben Lopez and Eluterio Martinez accompanying with candles. The Mexican American ladies of the parish served cake and coffee following the ceremony, while Rudy Longoria provided music with the accordion.

IN APPRECIATION

We take this opportunity to thank our friends for the many kindnesses expressed in thought and deed, following the death of our loved one. - The family of Mrs. Ruth Johnson.

Aliens Must Register Prior To January 31

C. W. Johnson, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service recently urged all aliens in the State of Oregon who have not yet filled out alien address report forms, to do so before Jan. 31, at the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service office or local post office.

The immigration official pointed out that the law requires all non-citizens, except persons in diplomatic status and foreign representatives to certain international organizations, such as the United Nations, to report their addresses to the government each January. Johnson added, "The parent or legal guardian of an alien child under 14 years of age must fill out the address report form for such a child in order to comply with the law."

He declared, "We have tried to make it as convenient as possible for non-citizens to meet the address report requirements; and in view of serious penalties for willful violation, all persons subject to the address report law are urged to fulfill this obligation before the end of January."

GUN BILL DOESN'T RESTRICT HUNTERS

Oregon hunters are advised that the Omnibus Crime Bill - the so-called new federal gun law - does not affect or restrict Oregonians in hunting for any of the wild animals of the state.

Roy Atchison, legal advisor for the Game Commission, told hunters recently that this new federal law has nothing to do with hunting, and that Oregon citizens as well as non-residents may continue to hunt in the state according to regulations prescribed by Oregon law.

Atchison said that in the future, according to the federal gun bill, a person purchasing sporting arms or ammunition will be required to provide the dealer with his name, address, age and other information at the time of the purchase transaction. The dealer places this information on a federal form which the purchaser must sign, and this record is maintained by the dealer.

Restrictions are also placed on the interstate shipment of sporting arms and ammunition. These restrictions and requirements will result in some inconvenience to hunters, other law-abiding citizens and dealers in the purchase and sale of sporting rifles, shotguns and ammunition, the attorney thought.

In addition, the new federal gun law prohibits the sale of shotguns, rifles and ammunition for these firearms to persons under 18 years of age, and the sale of pistols or pistol ammunition to persons under the age of 21.

However, Atchison said, there is nothing in the federal gun bill which prohibits or restricts a person, regardless of age, from hunting according to the statutory laws and regulations of the state in which he resides, or in which he hunts.
