

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD G. BREWSTER

In a Nov. 30, 1968 candle-light ceremony at the United Methodist church in Nyssa, Miss Karen Main and Richard Glen Brewster were united in marriage. The Revs. Robert Manley of Nyssa Church of the Nazarene and J. D. Crego of Nyssa Methodist church performed the double-ring rites.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford S. Main of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben G. Brewster of Nampa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace, fashioned with a full flowing skirt which was accented with tiers of ruffled lace, cascading to a chapel train.

She wore a single strand of pearls, borrowed from her mother and her elbow-length veil of illusion was held by a crown of satin petals, encrusted with pearls and crystals. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy, accented with pink ribbon streamers. The bouquet was arranged on a white Bible, a gift from the bride's parents.

Miss Nonie Smith attended as maid of honor. She was attired in a frock of avocado-green velvet. Bridesmaids were the Misses Glenda and Margaret Brewster, sisters of the bridegroom; Jan and Carla Mace, cousins of the bride. Their gowns of pink satin were designed identical to that of the maid of honor, and each carried a long-stemmed pink rosebud with pink streamers.

Steve McCain was best man, while ushers were Kent Main, the bride's brother; Doug Kollman, Jim Knapp and Ivan Inouye. Tony Munkle served as ringbearer.

Preceding the ceremony, the white tapers were lighted by the Misses Cindy and Cille Tracy, wearing identical gowns of avocado crystalite.

During the rites, the maid of honor sang, "More", "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Cecil Evans who also played the wedding march.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Main wore a medium-pink dress and matching coat. The ensemble was accented by a jeweled strip down the coat-front. Her accessories were a winter-white hat, white shoes and gloves. The bridegroom's mother chose a knit suit of deep-brown hue and beige accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses and ivy.

A reception honoring the newlyweds was held in the church social hall following the ceremony.
