Young Bulldogs Take Two; Give One To Ontario

The Nyssa eighth-grade cage team won two more games in the past two weeks, whipping Vale and Vallivue; and dropping a close decision to the Ontario club.

On Jan. 3 the eighth-graders traveled to Vale and closed out the young Vikings' previously unbeaten record by a score of 22 to 18. Nyssa led during most of the contest by 8 or 9 points, but the Vikings closed the gap in the final moments.

Outstanding performances for the junior Bulldogs were turned in by Max Elgezabal and Jerry Wilson.

On Friday, Jan. 10 the eighth-grade lads traveled to Vallivue and snowed the Falcons by a score of 37 to 8. Clutch shooting and aggressive ball-hawking by Guard John Bernal turned the ball game into a rout in the second half.

Excellent performances in this game were exhibited by Bernal, Kevin Engstrom and Geran Manley.

Ontario topped the junior Bulldogs on Mon., Jan. 13, by a score of 32 to 27. The Tigers led most of the game, but a brilliant comeback in the last half by the Bulldogs failed by five points. Ron and Jerry Wilson, Engstrom and Rod Lewis each displayed outstanding action.

Nyssa's next game will be against Vallivue Friday, Jan. 17 at the Nyssa High School gym.

On Friday evening, Jan. 17 the Adrian lads will host the Wilder 'cats'; and the following evening will invade the Nampa Christian court.

Retarded Child Workers Slate Boise Speaker

Mrs. Gerry Soule, executive secretary of the Idaho Association for Retarded Children from Boise, will be the featured speaker at the regularly scheduled meeting of the Treasure Valley Association for Handicapped and Retarded

Children, Inc., to be held at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Jan.

21 at the Senior Citizens' center in Ontario.

A number of Boise teenagers will be with Mrs. Soule for the purpose of explaining "TASK".

It is the understanding of the publicity chairman that

"TASK" is an organization of volunteer teenagers who are working with retarded youngsters in their area.

All interested adults and teenagers are especially welcome to attend this meeting,

not only to learn about "TASK"

but to also become better informed as to the things being done for retarded in the local area.
