'Door Belle' Project Slated By Dairy Wives

Get ready for the "Door Belles" and their "Cookbook Caper." That's the announcement made this week by Mary Payne, President of the Malheur county dairy wives and the Oregon Dairy Products commission to tell homemakers in Malheur County they will offer a 224 page full-color cookbook to those who have five or more fresh dairy products in their homes.

The Dairy Wives, or "Door Belles", will launch a home doorbell-ringing campaign from Jan. 27 to Feb. 1 which will cover the entire county.

The cookbook, titled "The Modern Approach to Everyday Cooking," has over 500 exciting recipes for simplified mealmaking and sells for $1.50. It will be offered free to those homemakers who have any combination of five fresh dairy products on hand, including milk, half and half or whipping cream, cottage cheese, sour cream, any type of domestic cheese, butter, ice cream, buttermilk, chocolate milk, eggnog or yogurt.

The teams of Dairy Wives, calling on area homes have valuable prizes for homemakers, even if they don't qualify for the cookbook. They will call on homemakers in Vale, Ontario, Nyssa and Adrian.

IN APPRECIATION

We take this opportunity to thank Adrian Legionnaires and auxiliary members for the dinner recently served to our family. We also want to thank others for their expressions of sympathy. - Mrs. Bonnie Leavitt, Dick and Michele.
