

MR. AND MRS. DON J. ROBERTS

Miss Susan Schenk became the bride of Don J. Roberts in an 11 o'clock morning ceremony on January 30, 1969 in the Salt Lake City LDS temple. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John L. Schenk of route 2, Nyssa; Mr. and Mrs. Snoden Roberts of route 2, Parma.

A Feb. 1 reception, held at the Nyssa LDS stake center, was attended by 450 guests. Floral arrangements were designed from pink gladioli, red carnations and roses. Vocal selections were provided by Don Bates, Mark Moncur, Marilyn Farr, Reva Tolman and Lina Flake. Accompanist was Patty Urry.

The new Mrs. Roberts was attired in a gown of white satin, trimmed with seed pearls and lace. Her short veil was held by a pillbox headpiece, also trimmed with seed pearls; and she carried a bouquet of red roses, pink and red carnations.

Attending as maid of honor was Susanne Polton. Marilyn Farr was matron of honor, with Lina Flake, Kay Malm and Sherrie Roberts as bridesmaids. They wore dresses of red velvet, carried white muffs and bouquets of pink carnations, with red ribbon. Christine and Lori Russell, wearing pink velvet frocks, attended as flower girls.

Tony Roberts served as best man, while other attendants were Brent Schulthies, Craig Bell and Tom Pett. Among those in the receiving line were Bishop and Mrs. Reed Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skeen and the couple's parents.

A white cake, trimmed in red, and red glass serving dishes graced the refreshment table. Assisting with serving, care of gifts and guest registration were Joy McPartland, Laura Russell, Dorothy and Fern Moore, Kris Ward, Myrtle Alexander, Mildred Williams, Elaine Nelson and Peggy Moore.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schenk wore a frock of pale pink shantung, trimmed with lace. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a lavender dress, with silk-bead trim. They wore corsages of red and pink roses.

Among out-of-area guests were Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Russell, Lori, Christine and Tony, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Roberts all of Salt Lake City; Larry Schenk of Las Vegas and Mrs. Kay Malm of Provo, Utah.

The newlyweds are both juniors at Brigham Young university in Provo and are now residing in Orem, Utah.

Annual FFA Banquet Held By Adrian Unit

Evelyn Tallman was chosen Chapter Sweetheart. Others competing for this honor were Jean Munn, Linda Martin and Sheila Pratt.

Awards went to the following: Rod Price, livestock foundation; Bill Brewer, crop farming; Burdette Pratt, mechanics; Brian McCormick, dairy; Bill Brewer, speech; Jim Thomas, star green hand; and Bill Brewer, star chapter farmer.

Mrs. Zelma Ocamica was chosen Honoree Chapter Farmer.

Glenn Ward was the guest speaker and Jim Langley presented slides of Europe, taken by him on a FFA sponsored trip.

EMBLEM CLUB ACTIVITIES

Members of Ontario Emblem club 192 held their regular meeting Feb. 10 at the Elks lodge hall.

It was announced that community service hours must be reported to Kathryn McCoshum by March 1 so that a resume can be sent to the Supreme Emblem club.

National Supreme President Lillian Nolan of New Haven, Conn., made a joint-visitation to the Hermiston, Pendleton and Ontario clubs on Feb. 19, with the Pendleton women serving as hostesses. Ten members of the local club attended the meeting.

State office nominations were held to recommend Evelyn Shaw for third-vice president and Blanche Rowe for trustee or financial officer.

Motions were made at the Feb. 10 meeting to make contributions to the Elks eye clinic and the Casteel Children's trust fund.

Evelyn Shaw read an article on "Americanism". Winner of this year's essay contest will be sent for state competition.

The Chinese auction gift was won by Dorraine Keele. The article was made and donated by Josie Anderson. Next auction will be at the regular March 10 business meeting. It was reported that the recent Sweetheart Day event was a big success and the Emblem women extend their thanks to all who helped to make it so.

Prior to adjournment, refreshments were served by Mary Danilson.

KARLA KRIEGH

Her engagement to Glenn Palmer is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kriegh of route 1, Nyssa. Her fiance is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palmer of Parma. Miss Kriegh is a 1963 graduate of Adrian high school, attended Treasure Valley Community college for two years and was graduated in 1965. She is presently employed at the Nyssa branch of the First National Bank of Oregon. The future bridegroom is a graduate of Grandview high school and works as a mechanic-technician at Amalgamated Sugar Company's Nyssa plant. A March 15 wedding is planned at the home of the bride-elect's parents in the Newell Heights community near Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Moore of Nampa, and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mumford and baby Shelli Jo of Boise were Feb. 23 dinner guests of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McConnell.
