

Bulldog Cagers Defeat Savages In Final Tilt

Sparked for their fifth and final victory of the season on March 1, the NHS Bulldogs conquered the Enterprise quintet, 73-68.

Craig Lewis bucketed 9 field goals and 9 free throws for a total of 27 counters for Nyssa. Larry Wilson followed with 16 points.

The Bulldogs led the Savages throughout the contest, and as the buzzer sounded at halftime, the score stood at 42-31.

In the third-quarter the Savages closed the gap to six points.

The NHS hoopsters shot 44% of their baskets and 65% of their free shots compared to Enterprise's 41% of baskets and 69% on free shots.

COACH COMMENTS

"Overall, I feel these boys have made a great deal of progress since the beginning of the season," commented Coach Tom Neel. "Of all the teams I've coached, our team has made more improvement from start to finish. These athletes are now playing like they should have been at the beginning of the season. Even with our record of 5-16, I feel we've had a successful season."

"Nyssa is loosing some real fine seniors this year, but we have a good nucleus of juniors and sophomores for next season. Seniors who will be leaving this year are Ed Jeffers, John Shell; Larry Wilson and Jim Beck, co-captains. The entire team has been a very enjoyable group of individuals to work with." Neel added. - Susan Kouns, NHS Bulldog reporter.

The young grapplers are: Bobby Gallegos, Willard Drapes.

SOLONS LIST WAYS

The only way this can be accomplished, of course, is through the cutting of budgets proposed for state agencies and departments.

The cutting process is always painful, but we are convinced that it can be accomplished without emasculating or destroying any worthwhile programs.

This budget slashing will require us to draw a distinction between programs which are highly desirable but expendable, and those programs which are absolutely necessary.

Nearly all of Oregon's legislators campaigned last fall on promises to bend every effort to see a realization of responsible property tax relief.

Those promises are due now, and it will certainly be interesting to see which legislators have turned their backs on the people who elected them.

This direction of budget-cutting to provide more property tax relief should provide proof of our desire to remove the crushing burdens of confiscatory property taxes.

We must keep our pledge to the citizens who voted against the 1 1/2 per cent limitation, and we think the steps outlined above are affirmative answers to the pledge we made last fall.

a movie studio and visit other places of interest.

San Francisco will be the bowlers' destination on April 14 when they plan to take tours of the city, the harbor and other points of interest.

On the 15th the travelers will leave for Reno where they will stay their last night on the road, with plans to return home the following day.

The area bowlers have been raising funds and planning the trip for several years. Among their money-making projects have been score keeping, jewelry parties, tournaments, sales of quilt and television set and sponsoring the local bowler-of-the-month contests.

(Sounds like this crew is planning to have a 'bowling' ball. Wonder if there's room for two more - a couple of old, worn out Journal publishers).

ENTERED IN MAY

Another team, sponsored by Bye Lanes of Ontario, is scheduled to enter the National competition on May 22-23. The women plan to leave on May 20, making it a six-day trip.

Members of the team are Nyssan Kay Brendle; Sherry Sather, Agnes Dickerson, Kikue Kaneyama and Gayle Watanabe, all of Ontario.

RESULTS OF MEETING

The leaders of the new group of dissidents met Tuesday night with College President Emery Skinner, Deans Otis Murray and Ed Haynes. The agreed that the Joint Statement on Student Rights, adopted by the college board of education Feb. 19, encompassed mutual understanding and desires and that all inequities that exist or might arise could best be handled through this committee of faculty, students and citizens.

Teenage Volunteers To Aid At Hospital

A junior volunteer unit for Malheur Memorial hospital is now being organized, with the teenagers performing duties similar to those of the former Candy Strippers.

Both girls and boys (15 to 18), interested in this organization, are asked to contact Mrs. Bob (Mable) Fangen, phone 372-2912; or the hospital, 372-2211.

The Panthers team earned 124 points, with the Midgets netting 105. These points, will be added to their teams' total intramural scores.

The wrestling tournament netted $75.56 which will initiate a fund to be used for providing additional activity area in the gym.

Basketball will be the next intramural activity. It will be followed by softball and track.
