

MR. AND MRS. DON SHERWOOD II

On Feb. 14, 1969 at 7:30 p.m. in the Nyssa United Methodist church, Miss Doris A. Maggard became the bride of Don H. Sherwood, II.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Maggard of Nyssa, Dr. and Mrs. Don H. Sherwood of Talmo, Ga.

In the presence of 75 guests and before a background of candelabra, basket arrangements of white gladioli, red carnations and red ribbon, the double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. J. D. Crego.

Soloist was Mrs. E. C. Crandall, accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Evans, who provided traditional wedding music on the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Maggard was attired in a floor-length gown of nylon lace and rayon organza.

The bodice of chantilly lace, glowed with dainty seed pearls and French sequins. Lace motifs, cascaded across the sweeping A-line skirt. Her chapel train was scalloped with lace and her bridal veil was held by a petal-shaped tiara of pearls, crystals, sequins and lace. She carried a bouquet of red rosebuds and white carnations.

Miss Gwen Nelson attended as maid of honor, while bridesmaids were the Misses Alice Wilson, Sharon and Carolyn Nelson. They wore A-line red brocade dresses, headpieces of white velvet ribbon, and each carried a single large chrysanthemum, accented with red and white ribbon.

Peggy Kay Storms of Wilder was flower girl. She was dressed in an A-line white brocade dress with red velvet trim, and wore a red velvet ribbon in her hair.

Frank Sherwood served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Bill Dorsey, the bridegroom's cousin; Lonnie and Don Maggard, cousins of the bride. The latter two also served as candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Maggard chose a dress of cream polyester and red accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of blue silk worsted, with white accessories, and each wore an orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the church social room, decorated with white wedding bells. A three-tier cake, graced with red and white roses and topped with miniature newlyweds, centered the refreshment table. It was flanked with arrangements of white gladioli, red ribbon, red and white tapers.

Assisting with serving, care of gifts and guest registration were Mrs. Luther Ellison of Caldwell, Mrs. Lloyd Mahan of Vale, Mrs. Wilton Maggard of Parma, Mrs. Arlie Hamilton of Caldwell, Mrs. Robert Wilson of Nyssa, Corean and Beverly Mahan and Norma Ellison.

Among out-of-area guests were the bridegroom's parents from Georgia; his brother, Frank of Durham, N. C.; his cousin, Bill Dorsey of Rockford, Ill.; the Misses Sharon and Carolyn Nelson of Tremonton, Utah.

The new Mrs. Sherwood is a graduate of Nyssa high school.

DUP MEETING

Daughters of Utah Pioneers (DUP) met Mar. 6 in the home of Mrs. Howard Bair.

To become a DUP a person must be a direct descendant of a pioneer of Utah, before 1867. DUPs meet the first Thursday of every month at 2 p.m. in the home of one of the members.

The history of Mrs. Bair's great-grandfather, John Parkins, Sr. was given. He was originally from Loscoe, England and pioneered in Utah.

Mrs. Bair presented the lesson which was based on some letters written over 100-years ago. They were written in England and other places and mailed to the Utah territory.

Mrs. Bair served refreshments of Parkins bread, which is served with a lemon sauce. Parkins bread is served in England the fifth of November every year to commemorate the date in 1603 when Guy Fawks tried to assassinate the king. He was saved by a Parkins.

Secretaries To Meet

Futura Chapter of the National Secretaries Association will hold a dessert meeting March 13 at 7:30 P.M. in the Palomino cafe in Ontario.

Final plans for the Bosses Night Banquet March 28 will be announced by the committee chairman, Sharon Jensen.

Her husband was graduated from Greenwood high school in Delaware and attended Michigan State university.

After a brief stay in Boise, with plans for a June honeymoon trip to the Eastern states, the newlyweds are now residing at Notus where the bridegroom works as a dairyman.

PINOCHLE PARTIES

Wednesday Afternoon Pinochle group met Mar. 5 at the home of Mrs. Orma Cleaver. Prize winners were Mrs. Alma Kingrey, Mrs. Bill Schoen, Mrs. Wyatt Smith and Mrs. Sam McConnell.

Ricks Honor Student

Miss Marie Durfee, who is attending Ricks college in Rexburg, Idaho on an honor scholarship, received a straight 'A' grade point average during the 1968-69 fall semester, it is announced by college officials.

Marie is a freshman and student nurse at the Idaho college. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Durfee of rural Nyssa, and a 1968 graduate of Nyssa high school.

CLASSES GIVEN AT THE NYSSA OPPORTUNITY CENTER
GED, Spanish, Basic Education, English, Sewing and Driving.
 FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL
The Nyssa Opportunity Center
 LOCATED ON 3RD & PARK OR PHONE 372-3262

BETH BANNER

A March 29 wedding in the Idaho Falls LDS temple is planned by Beth Banner and David L. Leggett. Their engagement has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Alice W. Banner. The bride-elect is a graduate of Treasure Valley Community college and Utah State university in Logan. She is teaching third grade in the Skyway school at Renton, Wash. Her fiancé is a son of the Maxwell Leggetts of Almena, Wisc. He served in the Armed Forces and fulfilled a two-year mission in the North-western states for the LDS church. He is now working on the '747 Superjet' project for Boeing Aircraft corporation at Everett, Wash.

Tuesday Meeting Set

Various aspects of religious training, in relationship to development of the handicapped and retarded child, will be discussed by Father David Hazen of Ontario when he appears next week at the regularly scheduled meeting of the Treasure Valley Association for Handicapped and Retarded Children, Inc.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 18, in the Senior Citizens' center on South Oregon in Ontario.

Everyone, interested in learning how religious training of all faiths can benefit the handicapped and retarded, is welcome to attend the meeting.

GRANGE NEWS

Members of Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session on the evening of March 6, with Master Don Somers presiding.

Legislative Chairman Frank Sherwood reported on work programs and welfare recipients.

Women's Activity Chairman Mrs. Ira Price announced that a conference of the Women's Activities Committee, led by Dist. No. 6 Chairman Mrs. Delpha Jones of the Oregon State Grange, was to be held March 10 at the Oregon Slope Grange hall.

Before the Thursday meeting each member was given a tag by Lecturer Lois Boenig showing the letters K A B which, it was learned later, stood for Keep America Beautiful. Six members participated in a discussion concerning litter.

It was found that the 'Litter Bug' is a very old insect. A sign discovered in the ashes of the volcano Mt. Vesuvius read, "Anyone caught littering will be fined."

According to Allen Seed, Junior Executive Vice President of KAB, John Shakespeare, father of the author, was fined in 1552 for littering on Hanley Street. One granger commented that litter doesn't distribute itself - only people can do that.

Prior to the business session, a potluck dinner was served to 33 members and seven children. Next meeting will be at 8 P.M. March 20. All grangers are urged to attend.

Members of the Women's Activity Committee of Oregon Trail Grange met March 4 at the home of Mrs. Ellen Jones, with the session called to order by Chairman Mrs. Ira Price.

The possibility of having a rummage sale was discussed and it was decided that one should be held in May or June. Members were urged to begin getting clothing and miscellaneous articles ready for it. Mrs. Eric Boenig and Mrs. Stanley Sisson were appointed as a com-

Samba Group Meets

Samba club members met Mar. 9 at the home of Mrs. Bert Lienkaemper. Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb was a guest.

Prize winners were Mrs. E. H. (Shorty) Brandt and Mrs. Shay Eybee.

MALHEUR MEMORIAL HOSPITAL 1969

March 11 - To Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Weber of Parma, a girl.

March 11 - To Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Flores of Nyssa, a girl.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Haroldson spent the weekend in Boise with Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Haroldson and Kirstin. They helped Kristin celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gardner from California visited Mar. 9 with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Haroldson. They were on their way to Portland.

mittee to arrange for time and place.

Fifteen members answered roll call by telling of interesting books they had read recently. Subjects covered Japanese Flower Arranging, History from Civil War time to the present, trips to Australia, New Zealand, and Timbuctoo, tax loop holes, how to keep house and information about UFO.

Dessert was served by Co-hostess Mrs. Lucille Runcorn who also gave a recipe for sponge cake - "everything borrowed."

Next meeting will be at 2 P.M., Tuesday, April 1 in the home of Mrs. William Smiley, with Mrs. Don Somers as co-hostess. All grange women are invited to attend.

MARIE DURFEE

Her engagement to Vance E. Woolley is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin W. Durfee of route 2, Nyssa. Her fiancé is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Keith Woolley of Othello, Wash. Miss Durfee is a 1968 graduate of Nyssa high school and is now attending Ricks college in Rexburg, Idaho where she is a student nurse. The future bridegroom is a graduate of Othello high school and is also a student at Ricks college. A July 10 wedding is being planned by the engaged couple.

BRIDGE ACTIVITIES

Thursday Afternoon Bridge club members met Mar. 6 in the Muri Lancaster home.

Mrs. E. Otis Smith was a guest player.

High honors went to Mrs. Elsie Diven, Mrs. Jan Barton won second high award.

Bride-Elect Honored

NEWELL HEIGHTS-A bridal shower, honoring Miss Karla Kreigh, was given Saturday afternoon in the Presbyterian church social room at Adrian.

Games were played by the group, after which the bride-elect opened her many lovely gifts. She was assisted by Mrs. Marline Jenkins of Westfall.

Cake, punch and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Robert Long, Mrs. Irvan Toppliff, Mrs. Frankie Worden and Mrs. Dale Witt.

Works like a truck,
rides like a car...
Your Ford Dealer has America's No.1 selling line of trucks.

Ford light-duty models are the only trucks with no front axles for carlike riding smoothness and true truck toughness. They're the ones with the biggest, roomiest cabs with door-to-door comfort. And with power up to 390 cubes of V-8. Even Cruise-O-Matic, power disc brake and air conditioning option.

GENTRY FORD SALES, INC.
 Ontario, Oregon

GRAND OPENING

TREASURE VALLEY WELDING SUPPLY

366 S.E. 1st Ave., Ontario, Oregon
 1 1/2 Blocks East Of The East Side Cafe

MONDAY, MARCH 17, 1969
 FROM 1 P.M. - - - 9 P.M.

FEATURING

Industrial Air Products - - - Hobart & Miller Welders
 Victor Cutting & Welding Equipment

Plus Many Others

ON DEMONSTRATION :

Acetylene - - - A.C. Arc - - - D.C. Arc
 Semi Automatic and Gas Driven D.C. Welders.

A welding engineer will be on hand to answer your questions.

DRAWING FOR FREE DOOR PRIZES

ANNIVERSARY

We've Had Three Years In OUR Present Location - - - With Each Being Better Than The One Before - - -

THANKS TO YOU, OUR PATRONS!

There Won't Be Any Food Specials For This Annual Event - - -
 But In The Cafe Section We Have Installed

WALL-TO-WALL CARPETING FOR YOUR YEAR-ROUND PLEASURE

TWILIGHT CAFE & LOUNGE

FRED AND JENNIE BENNETT
 212 MAIN ST. NYSSA, OREGON PH. 372-3388