4-H CLUB NEWS

MERRY POTS & PANS

We had our second meeting March 13, at Jackie Sisson's house. Kristie Chamberlain and Nora Longoria lead the pledge to the flag. We made cold milk and fruit drinks, and after we drank the drinks we clean up the kitchen and wash and dried the dish.

March 28, we had our third meeting. Julie Farmer and Mary Soliz lead the pledge to the flag. Jackie Sisson demonstrated how to make hot cocoa. - Mary Lou Soliz, reporter.

COOKIE CRUMBS

The Cookie Crumbs 4-H club held their 5th meeting which was held in the Adrian Park. We talked about measuring and how to make cookies. Afterwards we made Kool-Aid, sang a few songs and then play a game.

Our next meeting will be April 11, we will divide into groups and make cookies. - Deanna Chaney, reporter.

STIR & STITCH CLUB

The Stir and Stitch 4-H club met March 28 at the home of Mrs. Carl Lassiter.

President Sherri Fitzsimmons called the meeting to order and Secretary Irene Soliz read the roll call. Games were played and they sang some songs. The girls made hot chocolate. - Marla Feik, reporter.

Cultures Class Visits Boise

To observe examples of Greek architecture, Mr. Clyde Swisher's World Culture's class traveled to Boise, March 27.

Following a brisk 40-block walk through downtown Boise, students noted that many of the capital city buildings had been modeled after the Grecian style. Even new buildings such as the YWCA showed traces of the Greek influence.

The group then journeyed to the Capitol where they visited the Senate chambers and observed the House of Representatives in session.

After a break for lunch, NHS students viewed an art exhibit by Mary Kirkwood and toured the Idaho State Historical Society Museum. - NHS Bulldog.
