

MRS. ELIZABETH SHAUGHNESSY, WHO BECAME 90 YEARS old on Tuesday, April 22, 1969, was honored with a birthday party by area Senior Citizens at their meeting that day. In this photo, she is surrounded by floral arrangements and traditional cakes. Prior to coming to Nyssa about 15 years ago and following the death of her husband who was an FBI narcotics agent, Mrs. Shaughnessy worked for a while as a cook for an experimental school, sponsored by the county, at Crane near Burns, Ore. Prior to that time she had resided in Salem. Until her health and eyesight began to fail, she was fond of the out-of-doors, with hunting and fishing among her favorite hobbies. She was also fond of needlework, especially knitting. The honoree is a native of Germany, has remained very alert throughout the years, and has proven herself to be a very loyal and devoted American citizen. - Journal Photo.

Owyhee Riding Club

Owyhee Riding club members are planning to meet April 27 at 9 a.m. in Adrian for their trip to Leslie Gluch. In case of bad weather the trip will be postponed a week. They plan to have a potluck picnic. The club will furnish the coffee. Guests are welcome to come.

Pickups are required for the trip down into the canyon. It is advisable to leave cars at the top of the hill.

The club is also planning a trip to Stein Mountain Loop, via Jordan Valley and the Rome junction. This trip will be May 23, 24, and 25. They also plan to go Aug. 22, 23, and 24 to Hazard lake northeast of New Meadows, Ida.

GARDENERS MEET

The ANK Garden club is busy preparing for the annual district meeting which they are hosting Thursday, April 24 at the Nyssa United Methodist church.

Their April meeting was in the home of Mrs. Maude Poulton, Parma, assisted by Mrs. Katrine Bakker. Mrs. Barbara Powers gave an interesting program on trees of different kinds, which was especially appropriate as Mrs. Poulton's home sets among all the different kinds of fruit and nut trees they have planted.

The plant sale on Saturday grossed a nice profit.
