Miss Faw Earns $300 Standard Oil Scholarship

BY DALE WITT

Karalee Faw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Faw of Vale, has been selected to receive a $300 college scholarship for excellence in 4-H and outstanding academic achievement. She was selected from many candidates who had submitted their 4-H records to the state 4-H office at Oregon State university in Corvallis. The scholarship is awarded by Standard Oil Company of California.

Miss Faw is currently in Sturgart, West Germany where she is participating in the International Christian Youth Exchange program, sponsored by the United Methodist Church. She was graduated from Vale Union high school last year and plans to begin her studies at OSU this fall, after returning from Germany on August 9.

The scholarship awarded Karalee is one of several available to eligible 4-H'ers. Her records were first selected at the Malheur county level and subsequently submitted for state competition on April 1. One of the fundamental criteria for competition in the state 4-H award program is that a candidate be enrolled in a current 4-H program. Karalee more than "fills the bill" by carrying an individual 4-H foods and clothing project while in Germany.
