

SUNSET VALLEY ACTIVITIES

BY MARTHA LORENSEN - PHONE 372 - 2186

SUNSET VALLEY - Mr. and Mrs. Keith Langley were hosts on May 25 at a dinner honoring the first birthday anniversary of their son, Scott. Among those attending were his great-grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Hobson; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Langley and Mrs. Ed Alexander of La Grande. Also present were great uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hobson of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brewer; and an uncle, James Langley of Northwest Nazarene college, Nampa. Others in attendance included Mary Brewer, Elaine Finkbottom, Douglas and Dave Perkins, also of NNC, Nampa.

Twenty-three members of the Loyalty class of the Nyssa First Christian church met on the evening of May 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skinner of Owyhee Junction. The group had a hamburger supper served by Mrs. Skinner and Co-hostess Mrs. Jesse Rigney.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glenn and family were among those attending the May 25 Jordan Valley rodeo.

Others attending the JV rodeo were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wood and Mrs. Rowena Kreeger.

The W. L. Chapins and Ken Lorensen received recent word of the death of a longtime Nebraska friend, Harry Patterson of Rupert. The Patterson couple had lived at Rupert for many years. They had visited on numerous occasions in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Lorensen visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bauman. Mrs. Bauman has been ill for several weeks at her home.

Mrs. Harriet Turner, who has been a patient at Malheur Memorial hospital for several weeks, plans to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ken Lorensen. She is reported to be showing gradual improvement and plans to return to her home in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glenn and children visited on the evening of May 25 with Mr. and Mrs. Kent Lovelace at Wilder.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Culbertson and family attended the May 24-25 performances of the Jordan Valley rodeo. They also visited Mrs. Culbertson's parents who reside there.

Mr. and Mrs. Brent Folkman were May 20 evening dinner guests of the Val Garners. J. E. Brower was a May 25 dinner guest of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Brent Folkman and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Ekanger were May 25 evening visitors in the home of Mrs. Jerry Gordon and children at Payette.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Buffington of Springfield, Ore., arrived recently to visit longtime friends and neighbors in this area. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell. The Buffingtons are former residents of the valley. They plan to return home next weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell and their houseguests, the Buffingtons visited on the evening of May 25 with Mrs. Mary Newgen, a patient at Malheur Memorial hospital.

Duane Smith underwent surgery on May 20 at Caldwell Memorial hospital. He was able to return home the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Smith and Valerie were May 22 luncheon guests of the Gabriel Astorecas.

A reception held May 25 at the Kenneth Lorensen home was well attended. The event honored newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lowtrip. They are now at home on the former Wayne Robb farm.

Mrs. Lois Council and Mrs. Fred Arai were among area residents attending a May 24 chrysanthemum chapter meeting at the Moore hotel in Ontario.

John Knottingham and Charles Moore of Ontario and Mrs. Lois Council were May 25 dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Knottingham and family at Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Newgen and Mrs. Frone Stradley of Fruitland were May 24 evening visitors in the Jim Butler home at New Plymouth.

The Ora Newgens were May 24 evening visitors in the Walter Stradley home at Fruitland.

BUENA VISTA NEWS

 BY HELEN HOFFMAN - PHONE 372 - 2806 *****

BUENA VISTA - Out Our Way club women held their Mother's day party May 14 in the home of Mrs. Lester Cleaver. Roll Call was answered by 12 members and three guests, Mmes. Vern Fields, Eugene Stephen and Carl Barnes. They answered the roll by telling "something that my mother did that made me peeved."

Mrs. Thurman Piercy was named mother-of-the-year and was presented with a gift, with each woman receiving a gift from a grab bag provided by women giving the party. Games were played, and refreshments were served by assistant hostesses Mrs. Esther Stephen, Mrs. Delbert Cleaver, Mrs. Thurman Piercy, Mrs. Leslie Topliff and Mrs. Glenn Hoffman.

The club group will meet with Mrs. Delbert Cleaver June 18, instead of on the previously scheduled date.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McConnell were May 25 dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Chelidlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bishop and baby of Corvallis were May 23 overnight guests in the Mancel Bishop home, and stayed overnight May 24 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant McGee at Ontario. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bishop and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Mancel Bishop, Billy and Don, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Hunsucker at Gayway Junction.

Recent guests in the home of Mrs. Esther Stephen and Willy were Mrs. Sam Matsunaga and son, Melvin. The latter was home on a two-week leave from Nave duty. His next assignment is Vietnam.

Mrs. Olive Graham, who recently suffered a broken hip, is reported recuperating very well. She spent some time in Malheur Memorial hospital nursing home, but is now living with Mrs. Clara Corfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffiths were May 25 afternoon visitors in the Glenn Hoffman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tanner visited on the evening of May 22 with his sister, Mrs. Alta Pekkala at Ontario. Martin Tanner of Jordan Valley recently spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy

Tanner.

Among parents attending May 25 Nyssa high school graduation exercises in honor of their sons and daughters were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cleaver for their daughter, Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cleaver for daughter, Joyce; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cleaver for son, Don. Also among the graduating seniors was Alan Cleaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Cleaver of Burns.

Mrs. Lester Cleaver, Melissa and Terry attended May 25 graduation rites at Wilder. Among the seniors was Mrs. John (Pam) Cleaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams recently returned from a visit of several days with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoefler at Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Lester Cleaver visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. DeVon Larson of Moses Lake, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Porter of Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aston of Rupert, Idaho, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Orr. They are all relatives who were here to attend funeral rites for Mrs. Lila Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cleaver and family attended a May 18 Benson family reunion in the Charlie Davis home at Burns. Among others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams of Nyssa, Mrs. Harold Fivecoat of Kamiah, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Benson and family of Madras. The brothers and sisters had not all been together for five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reid and far ly of Halfway, Ore., visited on the evening of May 24 with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Talbot. Other evening visitors were the Alfred, Bob and Loyd Adams' the Jack Wards, Jim Chamberlains, the Buster Talbot and Thurman Hill families.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ausman entertained with an after-graduation party on the evening of May 25 in their home. The occasion honored their daughter, Margaret and Sandra Ward. Among guests were the Jack Wards, Russell Talbots and Loyd Adams', Mrs. Jim Craig and children of Wilder. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

COOL IT! with quiet gas air conditioning

For your family's year 'round comfort... Gas air-conditioning

It's amazingly easy to have year-round comfort with a modern gas air conditioning installation that will keep you comfortably cool all summer . . . pleasantly, evenly warm when blizzards blow. Filters and freshens the air in every room—reduces dust and pollen—keeps humidity under control. You can depend on natural gas all-year air conditioning to save you money and trouble. There are NO moving parts in the heating/cooling cycle to break down or wear out.

Get the facts — come to the

CASCADE COMFORT CLINIC

JUNE 4, 5, 6, 7

9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Come to the Cascade Natural Gas office — Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday — and get ALL the facts on air conditioning. See and examine the type of equipment best suited to your needs. There are systems that both cool and heat, others that cool only, still others that cool in conjunction with your existing furnace installation. We'll have plenty of experts on hand to answer your questions. You will be under no obligation. Even if you insist you are not "ready" yet for air conditioning, we urge you to visit Cascade's Comfort Clinic while these knowledgeable technicians are available for consultation. Coffee and doughnuts.

Cascade Natural Gas Corporation

Distributors of Naturalgasatisfaction

329 S. OREGON ST.

ONTARIO

PH. 889-5391

