in tank operation during the war. He married Armine Derouian on June 24, 1944, in Cairo, Egypt. The couple came to the United States in 1946. They lived in Harrisburg for a time, and moved to Parma in 1947. He was proprietor of the Hartman Locker and Cold Storage near Nyssa Junction until 1966. He worked at Yellowstone Park in the summer of 1966, and had been working in Scottsdale, Ariz., for a time. He was Democratic precinct committeeman of the West Black Canyon Precinct for a time, and also worked for the Amalgamated Sugar Co. at Nyssa. He drove a logging truck in the summer.

He was a member of and an elder in the Presbyterian Church.

In addition to Mrs. Hartman, he is survived by a son, James Hartman, Route 2, Parma.

RONALD DON SMITH

Ronald Don Smith, 50, a long-time resident of the Nyssa area, died Sunday, June 1, 1969 in a Boise hospital.

He was born Oct. 14, 1918. Mr. Smith is survived by his mother, Rosa R. Smith, Nyssa; three brothers, Clifford and Ray, both of Nyssa, and Ned Smith of Fremont, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Elmira Ellis, Caldwell.

Services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Owyhee ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by Bishop Farrell G.

NAZARENE CHURCH NOTES

A Caravan Pow-wow, an award and demonstration time, will be held at the Nazarene church on Sunday, June 8 at 6:45 p.m. This will be the closing activity for the year in the Caravan program. Caravan is a scout-like program sponsored by the Church of the Nazarene for boys and girls through Junior High Schoolage. These groups have met on Wednesday evenings through the year under the direction of Bill Fitzsimmons, chief guide, and the other Caravan workers.

On May 24, about thirty of the older children and their leaders attended the annual Caravan Fair held on the campus of Northwest Nazarene College. Among the awards given at the fair was Caravan's highest and final achievement award, received by Gary Seward.

A carry-in supper for the Caravan workers was hosted recently by Rev. and Mrs. Robert Manley. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fitzsimmons, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tarter, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheppard, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wild were not able to attend.

A time of farewell fellowship will be held at the church Sunday evening after the Caravan Pow-wow in honor of two Peterson. Interment was made in the Owyhee cemetery.

families who are moving, the Floyd Rhoades' and the John Sheppards. Refreshments will be served at that time.

Vacation Bible school will begin this year on Friday, June 13. The second session will be held during the Sunday School hour on Sunday, then the schedule will continue through June 20, with the VBS program to be given on June 22. The school is open to children from age 4 through junior high school and will run from 9:00 o'clock until 1:30 each day except Sunday. Each child should take a sack lunch; the drink will be provided. Barbara Fitzsimmons is superintendent of the school again this year.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH NEWS

Revival services will be conducted at 8 o'clock nightly beginning Wednesday, June 11 at the Nyssa Assembly of God church, located at 115 Reece avenue, two blocks south of the stop light, it is announced by Pastor Carl Johnson, Jr.

The gospel themes will be salvation for the soul, divine healing for the body, the baptism in the Holy Spirit for all believers and the second coming of Jesus Christ.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. William Caldwell, graduate of Southwestern Bible college of the Assemblies of God, Waxahachie, Texas. He is now an evangelist and author at Tulsa, Okla.

The Rev. Caldwell's ministry has taken him to all 50 states and many foreign countries. He has recently returned from a round-the-world assignment in which he ministered principally in Malaysia, Fiji, Tonga and the Samoas. He was also an evangelist for the Assemblies of God "Target City 1968" crusades in Singapore.

His sermon topics will include, "Jesus Visits Mercy Hospital", "Your Miracle", "The Hillbilly's Pea Patch", "Every Other Bed", "You Can Be Boss", "Demon Possession, Is There Such A Condition?", "Lying Spirits", and "Jesus Christ The Healer".

OWYHEE COMMUNITY CHURCH

On Thursday, June 12, a vocal quartet from Montana Institute Bible college will be singing at Owyhee Community church. The public is cordially invited.

Prayer meetings will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday evenings at the church. The young peoples' meeting will be at 7:30 Sunday evening, with the worship service beginning at 8 o'clock.

Vacation Bible school for children age 3 through sixth-grade began Monday. Those needing transportation are asked to contact Pastor Fred Moxom or one of the teachers. The school will continue for eight days. Vacation Bible school for junior high, high school students and adults will follow.

The Rev. Sam Parvin of Wilder showed colored slides on June 1 of American Sunday School Union summer camps. Supt. Haney has received camp brochures and registration cards.

The evangelist will pray for the sick at each service. The closing night of the meetings will be Sunday, June 22. There will be no service on Mondays. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Those desiring to attend a camp session or those wanting information are asked to contact Haney or the Rev. Moxom. There will be camp sessions for all age groups, including adults.

The Rev. and Mrs. Fred Moxom are now located in the parsonage and he has assumed pastoral duties. There will be a June 8 potluck dinner in their honor and to show appreciation to Rodney Frost of Boise. The latter was guest speaker while the church was without a pastor. Word has been received of the birth of a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beachell, recent Missionary visitors at the church. The family will be leaving soon for work at Bogota, Columbia.

The Beachells have two other children. Mrs. Beachell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartz, managers of the Boise rescue mission. Her husband is a nephew of the Robert Kriners. The Rev. Kriner is a former pastor of the church.

Visiting in the home of their mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Mitchell are Mr. and Mrs. Cal (Marilyn Lewis) Farr of Provo, Utah, Mrs. William (Virginia Lewis) Mannewitz, Christine and Mary of Dallas, Texas. Also visiting the Mitchells, other friends and relatives is Dee Farr of Layton, Utah, formerly of Adrian.
