NU ACRES HAPPENINGS

BY MARGARET EVANS PHONE 674-2074

NU ACRES — Mr. and Mrs. Leon K. Betts and children of Port Hueneme, Calif., are visiting at the home of Leon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Betts. They plan to stay for about two weeks.

Gary Betts and family arrived the morning of June 21 from Renton, Wash., to spend the weekend.

The Farmerettes and community and the Nazarene church women of Nyssa fixed dinner for the Clifford Mitchell family and served it June 21 at the hall. They served about 75 people.

The sympathy of the friends and neighbors goes out to Mrs. Mitchell and family on the loss of their husband and father, Clifford Mitchell.

The Farmerette club met at the hall on the afternoon of June 18, with Mrs. Eva Maine as hostess.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans held Open House for Mr. and Mrs. Evans at their home on the afternoon of June 21 in honor of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. Many friends and relatives called during the afternoon. Among out-of-town friends included Mrs. Lyle Dickerson, Mrs.

Helen Tirrell of Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allison of Center Point, Mrs. Anna Mills and family of Greenleaf, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Laird and family of Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spencer of Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Schrantz of Sunnyside, Wash., surprised the Evans' on the evening of June 21, when they drove to spend the weekend with them. They are the parents of Mrs. Karl Evans.

A June 22 picnic was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Evans and family of Shady Dale, Ga., and Roy Evans, who is home from the Navy. He is stationed at Port Hueneme, Calif. Among those attending were the Evans children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spencer of Caldwell, Mrs. Anna Mills and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Schrantz, Sunnyside, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Gary Strawn and children of Kennewick, Wash.

Jessie Fry spent June 22 with his brother, Richard Jenkins and family in Fruitland. Mr. and Mrs. George Goss-man and family of Ellensburg, Wash., have been visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pulsipher.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bird of Orland, Calif., are spending a few days with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Alden J. Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Mell were June 22 dinner hosts for their friends and neighbors who helped build a new family room onto their house. About twenty-five people were there.

Word has been received that Ted Allison of Homedale is much improved and will soon be able to return home from the hospital.

Terri Ann Young of Vale and Becky Winters of Ontario are spending this week with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jones, Stephanie and Jerry of Sacramento, Calif., spent the recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baxter attended the June 20 evening session of the Old Fiddler's Contest at Weiser. They report they enjoyed it very much and feel that one misses a lot if they don't attend it.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson of Madras, Ore. visited recently with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baxter. He is on furlough from the U. S. Navy and is on his way to
